KITABU QUEST Grade 6 English

Ethiopia ENC learner book

Mascot: gelada

This KITABU QUEST book turns the curriculum into short lessons, worked examples, guided activities, practice, review, and home links for Ethiopia learners.

How To Use This Book

This book helps Grade 6 learners study English one teachable topic at a time.

1. Start with the inquiry question and say what you already know.
2. Read the Learn section slowly and mark new words.
3. Try the worked example before reading the full solution.
4. Complete the activity and practice tasks.
5. Correct your answer using the success criteria.
6. Ask for support when your answer is still unclear.

Subject method: Read, speak, listen, write, and edit in connected language tasks.

Learning Skills In This Book

Each topic builds knowledge, skill, values, communication, collaboration, critical thinking, creativity, digital awareness, and self-confidence.

Study actively: speak answers aloud, draw when useful, show your working, cite evidence, use local examples, and correct mistakes after feedback.

A strong answer is specific. It names the idea, gives evidence or method, applies it to the task, and checks whether it answers the question.

Table Of Contents

Use this table to move through the book one topic at a time. Each topic has a lesson opener, clear teaching, a model or example, guided work, practice, and checks for understanding.

1. Reading To Infer Meaning
2. Vocabulary In Context And Dictionary Skills
3. Discussion Debate And Listening
4. Grammar Revision And Complex Sentences
5. Summary And Functional Writing
6. Comprehension With Text Evidence
7. Editing And Peer Review
8. Upper Primary English Portfolio

As you finish each topic, return to the success criteria and correct one answer before moving on.

Reading To Infer Meaning: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: Reading To Infer Meaning

This English topic connects to an Ethiopian reading, speaking, listening, writing, or discussion task for Reading To Infer Meaning. Build word meaning from context, word families, examples, and accurate sentences.

Progression focus: prepare for upper-primary transition by using evidence, accuracy, and reflection.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- read, speak, listen, write, and edit clearly about reading to infer meaning

Inquiry questions:

- What evidence, word choice, or sentence control does reading to infer meaning require?

Success criteria:

- meaning is clear
- language choice fits the task
- spelling, grammar, and structure are checked

Before moving on, make one short answer stronger by adding evidence, improving a sentence, or choosing a clearer word.

Reading To Infer Meaning: Learn

This topic is about building word power. A strong reader uses clues before and after a word, checks the word family, tests the meaning in the sentence, and then uses the word in a new sentence that still sounds natural.

Mini passage:

A learner meets an unfamiliar word in a passage about reading to infer meaning. The sentence before it gives a clue, and the sentence after it shows an example. The learner tests a meaning, checks whether the sentence still makes sense, and then writes a new sentence using the word correctly.

Learner move: compare ideas, use evidence from the text, and revise for accuracy.

What to notice in Reading To Infer Meaning:

- Start with the exact task, not a general answer.
- Use a detail from the text, talk, example, or situation.
- Choose words that match the audience and purpose.
- Write or speak in complete, connected sentences.
- Revise one weak sentence after feedback.

Key words:

- Reading To Infer Meaning
- Reading
- Infer
- Meaning
- read
- listen

Reading To Infer Meaning: Worked Example

Worked example for Reading To Infer Meaning: Work out a word from context.

Sentence: The monitor arranged the books neatly, so the teacher praised the orderly shelf.

Model answer:

Orderly means neat and well arranged. I know this because the sentence says the monitor arranged the books neatly.

Try the method:

1. Read before and after the word.
2. Guess the meaning.
3. Check whether the sentence still makes sense.

Reading To Infer Meaning: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words before you practise Reading To Infer Meaning. In English, vocabulary is useful only when you can understand it in context and use it in your own sentence.

Key words:

- Reading To Infer Meaning
- Reading
- Infer
- Meaning
- read
- listen
- speak
- write

Study routine:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Find or create a sentence where each word makes sense.
3. Explain each word in learner-friendly language.
4. Add one synonym, opposite, word family member, or example where possible.
5. Use one word in a spoken answer and one word in a written answer.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about Reading To Infer Meaning without a clear example, method, or evidence.

Reading To Infer Meaning: Guided Activity

Guided English activity for Reading To Infer Meaning:

Each learner chooses two topic words, explains them in simple language, and tests the meaning in a new sentence. The group rejects sentences where the word sounds forced or unclear.

Steps:

1. Read or listen to the task twice and underline the command word.
2. Work in pairs so one learner gives the answer and the other checks evidence, vocabulary, grammar, or organisation.
3. Improve the answer using one specific suggestion, not a vague comment such as make it better.
4. Share the improved answer with another pair and ask what is now clearer.
5. Write a correction note: I changed _____ because _____.

Teacher check: the final answer should match reading to infer meaning, use complete sentences, and show one visible improvement after feedback.

Reading To Infer Meaning: Practice And Correction

Practice for Reading To Infer Meaning:

Main outcome: read, speak, listen, write, and edit clearly about reading to infer meaning.

1. Choose five words from the topic.
2. Explain each word using your own words.
3. Write one sentence for each word.
4. Exchange sentences with a partner and correct unclear meanings.

Correction check:

- Is the meaning clear?
- Does the answer use topic vocabulary?
- Is there evidence, a reason, or a useful example?
- Have spelling, punctuation, grammar, and sentence order been checked?

Home link: Ask someone at home one question connected to reading to infer meaning and turn their answer into two clear sentences.

Reading To Infer Meaning: Challenge And Remediation

Support and challenge for Reading To Infer Meaning.

If you need support:

1. Re-read the task and underline the command word.
2. read the sentence before and after the word, test a possible meaning, and write a fresh sentence.
3. Compare your answer with the worked example and copy only the structure, not the words.
4. Ask a specific question: Which word, sentence, detail, or step is still confusing?

If you are ready for a challenge:

1. Create a new reading, vocabulary, speaking, grammar, writing, or editing task connected to reading to infer meaning.
2. Answer it in a way another learner can check.
3. Add one reason, evidence line, correction note, or improved sentence.
4. Exchange with a partner and improve the task after feedback.

Check:

- meaning is clear
- language choice fits the task
- spelling, grammar, and structure are checked

Success criteria:

- meaning is clear
- language choice fits the task
- spelling, grammar, and structure are checked

Comprehension With Text Evidence: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: Comprehension With Text Evidence

This English topic connects to an Ethiopian reading, speaking, listening, writing, or discussion task for Comprehension With Text Evidence. Read for meaning, evidence, and inference before writing the answer.

Progression focus: prepare for upper-primary transition by using evidence, accuracy, and reflection.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- read, speak, listen, write, and edit clearly about comprehension with text evidence

Inquiry questions:

- What evidence, word choice, or sentence control does comprehension with text evidence require?

Success criteria:

- meaning is clear
- language choice fits the task
- spelling, grammar, and structure are checked

Before moving on, make one short answer stronger by adding evidence, improving a sentence, or choosing a clearer word.

Comprehension With Text Evidence: Learn

This topic is about reading for meaning. Read in layers: first find what the text is mostly about, then collect two details, then explain how those details prove your answer. Do not copy a whole paragraph when one exact phrase or event is enough.

Mini passage:

In an Ethiopian classroom, a learner reads a short text about comprehension with text evidence. The first paragraph introduces the idea, the middle paragraph gives two actions or details, and the final paragraph shows what changed. A careful reader marks the main idea, underlines two details, and explains how the details support the answer.

Learner move: compare ideas, use evidence from the text, and revise for accuracy.

What to notice in Comprehension With Text Evidence:

- Start with the exact task, not a general answer.
- Use a detail from the text, talk, example, or situation.
- Choose words that match the audience and purpose.
- Write or speak in complete, connected sentences.
- Revise one weak sentence after feedback.

Key words:

- Comprehension With Text Evidence
- Comprehension
- With
- Text
- Evidence
- read
- listen
- speak

Comprehension With Text Evidence: Worked Example

Worked example for Comprehension With Text Evidence: Answer a comprehension question with evidence.

Question: Why did the group succeed?

Model answer:

The group succeeded because each learner took a clear role. One learner read the instructions, another recorded ideas, and another checked the final answer. This evidence shows teamwork, not luck.

Why it works:

- It answers the question directly.
- It gives two details.
- It explains how the details prove the answer.

Comprehension With Text Evidence: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words before you practise Comprehension With Text Evidence. In English, vocabulary is useful only when you can understand it in context and use it in your own sentence.

Key words:

- Comprehension With Text Evidence
- Comprehension
- With
- Text
- Evidence
- read
- listen
- speak

Study routine:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Find or create a sentence where each word makes sense.
3. Explain each word in learner-friendly language.
4. Add one synonym, opposite, word family member, or example where possible.
5. Use one word in a spoken answer and one word in a written answer.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about Comprehension With Text Evidence without a clear example, method, or evidence.

Comprehension With Text Evidence: Guided Activity

Guided English activity for Comprehension With Text Evidence:

Each learner reads the same short text, marks the main idea, and chooses two details that support it. The group then agrees on the strongest evidence and explains why it proves the answer.

Steps:

1. Read or listen to the task twice and underline the command word.
2. Work in pairs so one learner gives the answer and the other checks evidence, vocabulary, grammar, or organisation.
3. Improve the answer using one specific suggestion, not a vague comment such as make it better.
4. Share the improved answer with another pair and ask what is now clearer.
5. Write a correction note: I changed _____ because _____.

Teacher check: the final answer should match comprehension with text evidence, use complete sentences, and show one visible improvement after feedback.

Comprehension With Text Evidence: Practice And Correction

Practice for Comprehension With Text Evidence:

Main outcome: read, speak, listen, write, and edit clearly about comprehension with text evidence.

1. Read a short text silently.
2. Write the main idea in one sentence.
3. Quote or describe two details that support the answer.
4. Explain how one detail changes your understanding.

Correction check:

- Is the meaning clear?
- Does the answer use topic vocabulary?
- Is there evidence, a reason, or a useful example?
- Have spelling, punctuation, grammar, and sentence order been checked?

Home link: Ask someone at home one question connected to comprehension with text evidence and turn their answer into two clear sentences.

Comprehension With Text Evidence: Challenge And Remediation

Support and challenge for Comprehension With Text Evidence.

If you need support:

1. Re-read the task and underline the command word.
2. go back to the passage, mark the sentence that gives the answer, and write why it matters.
3. Compare your answer with the worked example and copy only the structure, not the words.
4. Ask a specific question: Which word, sentence, detail, or step is still confusing?

If you are ready for a challenge:

1. Create a new reading, vocabulary, speaking, grammar, writing, or editing task connected to comprehension with text evidence.
2. Answer it in a way another learner can check.
3. Add one reason, evidence line, correction note, or improved sentence.
4. Exchange with a partner and improve the task after feedback.

Check:

- meaning is clear
- language choice fits the task
- spelling, grammar, and structure are checked

Comprehension With Text Evidence: Outcome Check

Outcome check for Comprehension With Text Evidence: Read, speak, listen, write, and edit clearly about comprehension with text evidence.

Show that you can use the text as evidence and explain how the evidence supports your answer.

1. Restate the task in your own words so the purpose is clear.
2. Produce a short answer, paragraph, dialogue note, vocabulary explanation, or edited sentence linked to comprehension with text evidence.
3. Add one piece of evidence, reason, example, or correction note.
4. Read the answer aloud and check whether the meaning is complete.
5. Improve one sentence after feedback and write what changed.

Success criteria:

- meaning is clear
- language choice fits the task
- spelling, grammar, and structure are checked

Editing And Peer Review: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: Editing And Peer Review

This English topic connects to an Ethiopian reading, speaking, listening, writing, or discussion task for Editing And Peer Review. Improve a draft by checking meaning, grammar, spelling, punctuation, and word choice.

Progression focus: prepare for upper-primary transition by using evidence, accuracy, and reflection.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- read, speak, listen, write, and edit clearly about editing and peer review

Inquiry questions:

- What evidence, word choice, or sentence control does editing and peer review require?

Success criteria:

- meaning is clear
- language choice fits the task
- spelling, grammar, and structure are checked

Before moving on, make one short answer stronger by adding evidence, improving a sentence, or choosing a clearer word.

Editing And Peer Review: Learn

This topic is about improving a draft. Editing checks meaning first, then sentence order, tense, spelling, punctuation, and word choice. A good edit makes the answer easier to understand without changing the task.

Mini passage:

First draft: my group read about editing and peer review it was interesting we answer questions.

Improved draft: My group read about editing and peer review and answered three questions. The improved sentence uses a capital letter, a full stop, correct tense, and a clearer order of ideas.

Learner move: compare ideas, use evidence from the text, and revise for accuracy.

What to notice in Editing And Peer Review:

- Start with the exact task, not a general answer.
- Use a detail from the text, talk, example, or situation.
- Choose words that match the audience and purpose.
- Write or speak in complete, connected sentences.
- Revise one weak sentence after feedback.

Key words:

- Editing And Peer Review

Study routine:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Find or create a sentence where each word makes sense.
3. Explain each word in learner-friendly language.
4. Add one synonym, opposite, word family member, or example where possible.
5. Use one word in a spoken answer and one word in a written answer.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about Editing And Peer Review without a clear example, method, or evidence.

Editing And Peer Review: Guided Activity

Guided English activity for Editing And Peer Review:

Each learner brings one draft sentence, reads it aloud, and receives one clear suggestion about meaning, punctuation, tense, or word choice before rewriting it.

Steps:

1. Read or listen to the task twice and underline the command word.
2. Work in pairs so one learner gives the answer and the other checks evidence, vocabulary, grammar, or organisation.
3. Improve the answer using one specific suggestion, not a vague comment such as make it better.
4. Share the improved answer with another pair and ask what is now clearer.
5. Write a correction note: I changed _____ because _____.

Teacher check: the final answer should match editing and peer review, use complete sentences, and show one visible improvement after feedback.

Editing And Peer Review: Practice And Correction

Practice for Editing And Peer Review:

Main outcome: read, speak, listen, write, and edit clearly about editing and peer review.

1. Find one sentence from your previous work.
2. Check capital letters, punctuation, tense, spelling, and word choice.
3. Rewrite the sentence.
4. Write a correction note explaining what improved.

Correction check:

- Is the meaning clear?
- Does the answer use topic vocabulary?
- Is there evidence, a reason, or a useful example?
- Have spelling, punctuation, grammar, and sentence order been checked?

Home link: Ask someone at home one question connected to editing and peer review and turn their answer into two clear sentences.

Editing And Peer Review: Challenge And Remediation

Support and challenge for Editing And Peer Review.

If you need support:

1. Re-read the task and underline the command word.
2. choose one sentence, fix one problem at a time, and explain the correction.
3. Compare your answer with the worked example and copy only the structure, not the words.
4. Ask a specific question: Which word, sentence, detail, or step is still confusing?

If you are ready for a challenge:

1. Create a new reading, vocabulary, speaking, grammar, writing, or editing task connected to editing and peer review.
2. Answer it in a way another learner can check.
3. Add one reason, evidence line, correction note, or improved sentence.
4. Exchange with a partner and improve the task after feedback.

Check:

- meaning is clear
- language choice fits the task
- spelling, grammar, and structure are checked

Editing And Peer Review: Outcome Check

Outcome check for Editing And Peer Review: Read, speak, listen, write, and edit clearly about editing and peer review.

Show that you can improve a draft and name the exact correction made.

1. Restate the task in your own words so the purpose is clear.

Reading To Infer Meaning: Reading Practice 1

Session 1: Reading To Infer Meaning - Reading Practice

Mini word study:

The class builds a word bank for reading to infer meaning. For each word, learners write a simple meaning, a sentence from the topic, and one related word. A word is not truly learned until the learner can use it naturally in speech or writing.

Learner move: compare ideas, use evidence from the text, and revise for accuracy.

Tasks:

1. Read the mini passage twice.
2. Write the main idea.
3. Find two details and explain what they prove.
4. Write one question a careful reader should ask.

Quality check: stay on the topic, use exact words, give evidence or a reason, and improve one sentence after feedback.

Vocabulary In Context And Dictionary Skills: Vocabulary Builder 1

Session 1: Vocabulary In Context And Dictionary Skills - Vocabulary Builder

Mini word study:

The class builds a word bank for vocabulary in context and dictionary skills. For each word, learners write a simple meaning, a sentence from the topic, and one related word. A word is not truly learned until the learner can use it naturally in speech or writing.

Learner move: compare ideas, use evidence from the text, and revise for accuracy.

Tasks:

1. Choose four useful words.
2. Write a learner-friendly meaning for each word.
3. Use each word in a sentence about school, home, community, or reading.
4. Replace one vague word with a stronger topic word.

Quality check: stay on the topic, use exact words, give evidence or a reason, and improve one sentence after feedback.

Discussion Debate And Listening: Speaking And Listening 1

Session 1: Discussion Debate And Listening - Speaking And Listening

Mini dialogue:

A: I think the strongest answer is the one with a reason.

B: I agree, but it also needs a clear example from discussion debate and listening.

A: Let us combine both ideas.

B: Good. Then our group answer will be clearer.

Learner move: compare ideas, use evidence from the text, and revise for accuracy.

Tasks:

1. Prepare a short answer with one reason.
2. Say it to a partner clearly.
3. Listen to the partner and ask one follow-up question.
4. Repeat your answer with better word choice.

Quality check: stay on the topic, use exact words, give evidence or a reason, and improve one sentence after feedback.

Grammar Revision And Complex Sentences: Grammar Focus 1

Session 1: Grammar Revision And Complex Sentences - Grammar Focus

Mini grammar check:

A learner writes: The group read the text and writes answer. The class improves it to: The group reads the text and writes an answer. The correction keeps the tense consistent and completes the noun phrase.

Learner move: compare ideas, use evidence from the text, and revise for accuracy.

Tasks:

1. Write one short sentence.
2. Add a reason, time phrase, place phrase, or description.
3. Check subject-verb agreement and tense.
4. Correct punctuation.

Quality check: stay on the topic, use exact words, give evidence or a reason, and improve one sentence after feedback.

Summary And Functional Writing: Writing Workshop 1

Session 1: Summary And Functional Writing - Writing Workshop

Mini writing plan:

Before writing, a learner lists the audience, purpose, and three details for summary and functional writing. She chooses the strongest two details, writes a topic sentence, and leaves time to revise one weak sentence after reading aloud.

Learner move: compare ideas, use evidence from the text, and revise for accuracy.

Tasks:

1. Plan a paragraph before writing.
2. Add two connected details.
3. Write a closing sentence that answers the task.
4. Revise one weak sentence after reading aloud.

Quality check: stay on the topic, use exact words, give evidence or a reason, and improve one sentence after feedback.

Comprehension With Text Evidence: Comprehension Check 1

Session 1: Comprehension With Text Evidence - Comprehension Check

Mini passage:

A class group studies a short article linked to comprehension with text evidence. One learner writes the main idea too quickly, but another asks, Which sentence proves it? The group returns to the text, chooses two exact details, and changes the answer so it is based on evidence, not guessing.

Learner move: compare ideas, use evidence from the text, and revise for accuracy.

Tasks:

1. What is the main idea?
2. Which two details support it?
3. What word or phrase needs context clues?
4. What question remains after reading?

Quality check: stay on the topic, use exact words, give evidence or a reason, and improve one sentence after feedback.

Editing And Peer Review: Editing And Correction 1

Session 1: Editing And Peer Review - Editing And Correction

Mini editing note:

A learner circles one unclear sentence about editing and peer review. She checks capital letters, punctuation, tense, and word choice. Then she rewrites only the weak sentence and explains why the new version is easier to understand.

Learner move: compare ideas, use evidence from the text, and revise for accuracy.

Tasks:

1. Choose one sentence to improve.
2. Correct spelling, punctuation, tense, and word order.
3. Replace one vague word.
4. Read the final sentence aloud.

Quality check: stay on the topic, use exact words, give evidence or a reason, and improve one sentence after feedback.

Upper Primary English Portfolio: Fluency Practice 1

Session 1: Upper Primary English Portfolio - Fluency Practice

Mini situation:

A group message about upper primary english portfolio becomes clearer after learners remove repeated words, add one useful detail, and place ideas in order. Communication improves when the listener or reader can follow the message without guessing.

Learner move: compare ideas, use evidence from the text, and revise for accuracy.

Tasks:

1. Read the passage smoothly.
2. Practise the hardest sentence three times.
3. Say a new sentence without looking.
4. Ask whether the meaning was easy to follow.

Quality check: stay on the topic, use exact words, give evidence or a reason, and improve one sentence after feedback.

Reading To Infer Meaning: Reading Practice 2

Session 2: Reading To Infer Meaning - Reading Practice

Mini passage:

A learner chooses three words from reading to infer meaning and sorts them into known, partly known, and new. She asks a partner to test one meaning, then improves her example sentence so the word is clear from context.

Learner move: compare ideas, use evidence from the text, and revise for accuracy.

Tasks:

1. Read the mini passage twice.
2. Write the main idea.
3. Find two details and explain what they prove.
4. Write one question a careful reader should ask.

Quality check: stay on the topic, use exact words, give evidence or a reason, and improve one sentence after feedback.

Vocabulary In Context And Dictionary Skills: Vocabulary Builder 2

Session 2: Vocabulary In Context And Dictionary Skills - Vocabulary Builder

Mini passage:

A learner chooses three words from vocabulary in context and dictionary skills and sorts them into known, partly known, and new. She asks a partner to test one meaning, then improves her example sentence so the word is clear from context.

Learner move: compare ideas, use evidence from the text, and revise for accuracy.

Tasks:

1. Choose four useful words.
2. Write a learner-friendly meaning for each word.
3. Use each word in a sentence about school, home, community, or reading.
4. Replace one vague word with a stronger topic word.

Quality check: stay on the topic, use exact words, give evidence or a reason, and improve one sentence after feedback.

Discussion Debate And Listening: Speaking And Listening 2

Session 2: Discussion Debate And Listening - Speaking And Listening

Mini dialogue:

A: What point should our group make about discussion debate and listening?

B: We should give one clear idea and one reason.

A: What if someone disagrees?

B: We listen first, then answer politely with evidence or an example.

A: That will make the discussion stronger.

Learner move: compare ideas, use evidence from the text, and revise for accuracy.

Tasks:

1. Prepare a short answer with one reason.
2. Say it to a partner clearly.
3. Listen to the partner and ask one follow-up question.
4. Repeat your answer with better word choice.

Quality check: stay on the topic, use exact words, give evidence or a reason, and improve one sentence after feedback.

Grammar Revision And Complex Sentences: Grammar Focus 2

Session 2: Grammar Revision And Complex Sentences - Grammar Focus

Mini passage:

When a sentence about grammar revision and complex sentences is too long, the reader can lose the meaning. A learner splits one long sentence into two shorter ones, adds a full stop, and checks that each sentence has a subject and a verb.

Learner move: compare ideas, use evidence from the text, and revise for accuracy.

Tasks:

1. Write one short sentence.
2. Add a reason, time phrase, place phrase, or description.
3. Check subject-verb agreement and tense.
4. Correct punctuation.

Quality check: stay on the topic, use exact words, give evidence or a reason, and improve one sentence after feedback.

Summary And Functional Writing: Writing Workshop 2

Session 2: Summary And Functional Writing - Writing Workshop

Mini model:

The first draft gives ideas; the second draft makes them clear. A learner writing about summary and functional writing checks whether the paragraph has a beginning, useful details, and a closing sentence that answers the question directly.

Learner move: compare ideas, use evidence from the text, and revise for accuracy.

Tasks:

1. Plan a paragraph before writing.
2. Add two connected details.
3. Write a closing sentence that answers the task.
4. Revise one weak sentence after reading aloud.

Quality check: stay on the topic, use exact words, give evidence or a reason, and improve one sentence after feedback.

Comprehension With Text Evidence: Comprehension Check 2

Session 2: Comprehension With Text Evidence - Comprehension Check

Mini passage:

During silent reading, a learner notices that the title, first sentence, and final sentence all point to comprehension with text evidence. She writes a short summary, then checks whether every sentence in her answer can be traced back to the passage. This is how careful readers avoid unsupported opinions.

Learner move: compare ideas, use evidence from the text, and revise for accuracy.

Tasks:

1. What is the main idea?
2. Which two details support it?
3. What word or phrase needs context clues?
4. What question remains after reading?

Quality check: stay on the topic, use exact words, give evidence or a reason, and improve one sentence after feedback.

Editing And Peer Review: Editing And Correction 2

Session 2: Editing And Peer Review - Editing And Correction

Mini passage:

Editing is not decoration. When learners edit a response about editing and peer review, they ask: Is the meaning clear? Is the tense correct? Are important words spelled correctly? Does the sentence answer the task?

Learner move: compare ideas, use evidence from the text, and revise for accuracy.

Tasks:

1. Choose one sentence to improve.
2. Correct spelling, punctuation, tense, and word order.
3. Replace one vague word.
4. Read the final sentence aloud.

Quality check: stay on the topic, use exact words, give evidence or a reason, and improve one sentence after feedback.

Upper Primary English Portfolio: Fluency Practice 2

Session 2: Upper Primary English Portfolio - Fluency Practice

Mini situation:

A learner listens to a partner explain upper primary english portfolio. Before replying, he repeats the main idea in his own words. This shows careful listening and helps both learners correct misunderstandings before writing the final answer.

Learner move: compare ideas, use evidence from the text, and revise for accuracy.

Tasks:

1. Read the passage smoothly.
2. Practise the hardest sentence three times.
3. Say a new sentence without looking.
4. Ask whether the meaning was easy to follow.

Quality check: stay on the topic, use exact words, give evidence or a reason, and improve one sentence after feedback.

Reading To Infer Meaning: Reading Practice 3

Session 3: Reading To Infer Meaning - Reading Practice

Mini passage:

A learner meets an unfamiliar word in a passage about reading to infer meaning. The sentence before it gives a clue, and the sentence after it shows an example. The learner tests a meaning, checks whether the sentence still makes sense, and then writes a new sentence using the word correctly.

Learner move: compare ideas, use evidence from the text, and revise for accuracy.

Tasks:

1. Read the mini passage twice.
2. Write the main idea.
3. Find two details and explain what they prove.
4. Write one question a careful reader should ask.

Quality check: stay on the topic, use exact words, give evidence or a reason, and improve one sentence after feedback.

Vocabulary In Context And Dictionary Skills: Vocabulary Builder 3

Session 3: Vocabulary In Context And Dictionary Skills - Vocabulary Builder

Mini passage:

A learner meets an unfamiliar word in a passage about vocabulary in context and dictionary skills. The sentence before it gives a clue, and the sentence after it shows an example. The learner tests a meaning, checks whether the sentence still makes sense, and then writes a new sentence using the word correctly.

Learner move: compare ideas, use evidence from the text, and revise for accuracy.

Tasks:

1. Choose four useful words.
2. Write a learner-friendly meaning for each word.
3. Use each word in a sentence about school, home, community, or reading.
4. Replace one vague word with a stronger topic word.

Quality check: stay on the topic, use exact words, give evidence or a reason, and improve one sentence after feedback.

Discussion Debate And Listening: Speaking And Listening 3

Session 3: Discussion Debate And Listening - Speaking And Listening

Mini situation:

A learner prepares a short talk about discussion debate and listening. He writes three cue words, practises the first sentence, and checks his voice with a partner. When he speaks, he looks up, gives one example, and answers a follow-up question calmly.

Learner move: compare ideas, use evidence from the text, and revise for accuracy.

Tasks:

1. Prepare a short answer with one reason.
2. Say it to a partner clearly.
3. Listen to the partner and ask one follow-up question.
4. Repeat your answer with better word choice.

Quality check: stay on the topic, use exact words, give evidence or a reason, and improve one sentence after feedback.

Grammar Revision And Complex Sentences: Grammar Focus 3

Session 3: Grammar Revision And Complex Sentences - Grammar Focus

Mini passage:

Clear grammar helps the reader follow grammar revision and complex sentences. In the sentence The class discusses the passage before writing, the subject is The class, the verb is discusses, and the time phrase is before writing. 2. Add a reason, time phrase, place phrase, or description.
3. Check subject-verb agreement and tense.
4. Correct punctuation.

Quality check: stay on the topic, use exact words, give evidence or a reason, and improve one sentence after feedback.

Summary And Functional Writing: Writing Workshop 3

Session 3: Summary And Functional Writing - Writing Workshop

Mini model:

A useful paragraph about summary and functional writing has one controlling idea. It begins with a topic sentence, adds two connected details, and ends by answering the task. The writer removes any sentence that does not support the main idea.

Learner move: compare ideas, use evidence from the text, and revise for accuracy.

Tasks:

1. Plan a paragraph before writing.
2. Add two connected details.
3. Write a closing sentence that answers the task.
4. Revise one weak sentence after reading aloud.

Quality check: stay on the topic, use exact words, give evidence or a reason, and improve one sentence after feedback.

Comprehension With Text Evidence: Comprehension Check 3

Session 3: Comprehension With Text Evidence - Comprehension Check

Mini passage:

In an Ethiopian classroom, a learner reads a short text about comprehension with text evidence. The first paragraph introduces the idea, the middle paragraph gives two actions or details, and the final paragraph shows what changed. A careful reader marks the main idea, underlines two details, and explains how the details support the answer.

Learner move: compare ideas, use evidence from the text, and revise for accuracy.

Tasks:

1. What is the main idea?
2. Which two details support it?
3. What word or phrase needs context clues?
4. What question remains after reading?

Quality check: stay on the topic, use exact words, give evidence or a reason, and improve one sentence after feedback.

Editing And Peer Review: Editing And Correction 3

Session 3: Editing And Peer Review - Editing And Correction

Mini passage:

First draft: my group read about editing and peer review it was interesting we answer questions.

Improved draft: My group read about editing and peer review and answered three questions. The improved sentence uses a capital letter, a full stop, correct tense, and a clearer order of ideas.
