KITABU QUEST Grade 7 English

Ethiopia ENC learner book

Mascot: gelada

This KITABU QUEST book turns the curriculum into short lessons, worked examples, guided activities, practice, review, and home links for Ethiopia learners.

How To Use This Book

This book helps Grade 7 learners study English one teachable topic at a time.

1. Start with the inquiry question and say what you already know.
2. Read the Learn section slowly and mark new words.
3. Try the worked example before reading the full solution.
4. Complete the activity and practice tasks.
5. Correct your answer using the success criteria.
6. Ask for support when your answer is still unclear.

Subject method: Read, speak, listen, write, and edit in connected language tasks.

Learning Skills In This Book

Each topic builds knowledge, skill, values, communication, collaboration, critical thinking, creativity, digital awareness, and self-confidence.

Study actively: speak answers aloud, draw when useful, show your working, cite evidence, use local examples, and correct mistakes after feedback.

A strong answer is specific. It names the idea, gives evidence or method, applies it to the task, and checks whether it answers the question.

Table Of Contents

Use this table to move through the book one topic at a time. Each topic has a lesson opener, clear teaching, a model or example, guided work, practice, and checks for understanding.

1. Reading Narratives And Informational Texts
2. Vocabulary In Context
3. Listening And Speaking For School Tasks
4. Grammar Sentence Control And Tenses
5. Paragraph And Friendly Letter Writing
6. Introduction To Literature
7. Editing And Presentation
8. Form I English Portfolio

As you finish each topic, return to the success criteria and correct one answer before moving on.

Reading Narratives And Informational Texts: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: Reading Narratives And Informational Texts

This English topic connects to an Ethiopian reading, speaking, listening, writing, or discussion task for Reading Narratives And Informational Texts. Read for meaning, evidence, and inference before writing the answer.

Progression focus: build lower-secondary foundations with clear vocabulary and guided application.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- read, speak, listen, write, and edit clearly about reading narratives and informational texts

Inquiry questions:

- What evidence, word choice, or sentence control does reading narratives and informational texts require?

Success criteria:

- meaning is clear
- language choice fits the task
- spelling, grammar, and structure are checked

Before moving on, make one short answer stronger by adding evidence, improving a sentence, or choosing a clearer word.

Reading Narratives And Informational Texts: Learn

This topic is about reading for meaning. Read in layers: first find what the text is mostly about, then collect two details, then explain how those details prove your answer. Do not copy a whole paragraph when one exact phrase or event is enough.

Mini passage:

In an Ethiopian classroom, a learner reads a short text about reading narratives and informational texts. The first paragraph introduces the idea, the middle paragraph gives two actions or details, and the final paragraph shows what changed. A careful reader marks the main idea, underlines two details, and explains how the details support the answer.

Learner move: move from simple answers to short paragraphs with clear evidence.

What to notice in Reading Narratives And Informational Texts:

- Start with the exact task, not a general answer.
- Use a detail from the text, talk, example, or situation.
- Choose words that match the audience and purpose.
- Write or speak in complete, connected sentences.
- Revise one weak sentence after feedback.

Key words:

- Reading Narratives And Informational Texts
- Reading
- Narratives
- Informational
- Texts

Reading Narratives And Informational Texts: Worked Example

Worked example for Reading Narratives And Informational Texts: Answer a comprehension question with evidence.

Question: Why did the group succeed?

Model answer:

The group succeeded because each learner took a clear role. One learner read the instructions, another recorded ideas, and another checked the final answer. This evidence shows teamwork, not luck.

Why it works:

- It answers the question directly.
- It gives two details.
- It explains how the details prove the answer.

Reading Narratives And Informational Texts: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words before you practise Reading Narratives And Informational Texts. In English, vocabulary is useful only when you can understand it in context and use it in your own sentence.

Key words:

- Reading Narratives And Informational Texts
- Reading
- Narratives
- Informational
- Texts
- read
- listen
- speak

Study routine:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Find or create a sentence where each word makes sense.
3. Explain each word in learner-friendly language.
4. Add one synonym, opposite, word family member, or example where possible.
5. Use one word in a spoken answer and one word in a written answer.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about Reading Narratives And Informational Texts without a clear example, method, or evidence.

Reading Narratives And Informational Texts: Guided Activity

Guided English activity for Reading Narratives And Informational Texts:

Each learner reads the same short text, marks the main idea, and chooses two details that support it. The group then agrees on the strongest evidence and explains why it proves the answer.

Steps:

1. Read or listen to the task twice and underline the command word.
2. Work in pairs so one learner gives the answer and the other checks evidence, vocabulary, grammar, or organisation.
3. Improve the answer using one specific suggestion, not a vague comment such as make it better.
4. Share the improved answer with another pair and ask what is now clearer.
5. Write a correction note: I changed _____ because _____.

Teacher check: the final answer should match reading narratives and informational texts, use complete sentences, and show one visible improvement after feedback.

Reading Narratives And Informational Texts: Practice And Correction

Practice for Reading Narratives And Informational Texts:

Main outcome: read, speak, listen, write, and edit clearly about reading narratives and informational texts.

1. Read a short text silently.
2. Write the main idea in one sentence.
3. Quote or describe two details that support the answer.
4. Explain how one detail changes your understanding.

Correction check:

- Is the meaning clear?
- Does the answer use topic vocabulary?
- Is there evidence, a reason, or a useful example?
- Have spelling, punctuation, grammar, and sentence order been checked?

Home link: Ask someone at home one question connected to reading narratives and informational texts and turn their answer into two clear sentences.

Reading Narratives And Informational Texts: Challenge And Remediation

Support and challenge for Reading Narratives And Informational Texts.

If you need support:

1. Re-read the task and underline the command word.
2. go back to the passage, mark the sentence that gives the answer, and write why it matters.
3. Compare your answer with the worked example and copy only the structure, not the words.
4. Ask a specific question: Which word, sentence, detail, or step is still confusing?

If you are ready for a challenge:

1. Create a new reading, vocabulary, speaking, grammar, writing, or editing task connected to reading narratives and informational texts.
2. Answer it in a way another learner can check.
3. Add one reason, evidence line, correction note, or improved sentence.
4. Exchange with a partner and improve the task after feedback.

Check:

- meaning is clear
- language choice fits the task
- spelling, grammar, and structure are checked

Reading Narratives And Informational Texts: Outcome Check

Outcome check for Reading Narratives And Informational Texts: Read, speak, listen, write, and edit clearly about reading narratives and informational texts.

Show that you can use the text as evidence and explain how the evidence supports your answer.

1. Restate the task in your own words so the purpose is clear.
2. Produce a short answer, paragraph, dialogue note, vocabulary explanation, or edited sentence linked to reading narratives and informational texts.
3. Add one piece of evidence, reason, example, or correction note.
4. Read the answer aloud and check whether the meaning is complete.
5. Improve one sentence after feedback and write what changed.

Success criteria:

- meaning is clear
- language choice fits the task
- spelling, grammar, and structure are checked

Vocabulary In Context: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: Vocabulary In Context

This English topic connects to an Ethiopian reading, speaking, listening, writing, or discussion task for Vocabulary In Context. Build word meaning from context, word families, examples, and accurate sentences.

Progression focus: build lower-secondary foundations with clear vocabulary and guided application.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- read, speak, listen, write, and edit clearly about vocabulary in context

Inquiry questions:

- What evidence, word choice, or sentence control does vocabulary in context require?

Success criteria:

- meaning is clear
- language choice fits the task
- spelling, grammar, and structure are checked

Before moving on, make one short answer stronger by adding evidence, improving a sentence, or choosing a clearer word.

Vocabulary In Context: Learn

This topic is about building word power. A strong reader uses clues before and after a word, checks the word family, tests the meaning in the sentence, and then uses the word in a new sentence that still sounds natural.

Mini passage:

A learner meets an unfamiliar word in a passage about vocabulary in context. The sentence before it gives a clue, and the sentence after it shows an example. The learner tests a meaning, checks whether the sentence still makes sense, and then writes a new sentence using the word correctly.

Learner move: move from simple answers to short paragraphs with clear evidence.

What to notice in Vocabulary In Context:

- Start with the exact task, not a general answer.
- Use a detail from the text, talk, example, or situation.
- Choose words that match the audience and purpose.
- Write or speak in complete, connected sentences.
- Revise one weak sentence after feedback.

Key words:

- write
- sentence

Vocabulary In Context: Worked Example

Worked example for Vocabulary In Context: Work out a word from context.

Sentence: The monitor arranged the books neatly, so the teacher praised the orderly shelf.

Model answer:

Orderly means neat and well arranged. I know this because the sentence says the monitor arranged the books neatly.

Try the method:

1. Read before and after the word.
2. Guess the meaning.
3. Check whether the sentence still makes sense.

Vocabulary In Context: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words before you practise Vocabulary In Context. In English, vocabulary is useful only when you can understand it in context and use it in your own sentence.

Key words:

- Vocabulary In Context
- Vocabulary
- Context
- read
- listen
- speak
- write
- sentence

Study routine:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Find or create a sentence where each word makes sense.
3. Explain each word in learner-friendly language.
4. Add one synonym, opposite, word family member, or example where possible.
5. Use one word in a spoken answer and one word in a written answer.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about Vocabulary In Context without a clear example, method, or evidence.

Vocabulary In Context: Guided Activity

Guided English activity for Vocabulary In Context:

Each learner chooses two topic words, explains them in simple language, and tests the meaning in a new sentence. The group rejects sentences where the word sounds forced or unclear.

Steps:

1. Read or listen to the task twice and underline the command word.
2. Work in pairs so one learner gives the answer and the other checks evidence, vocabulary, grammar, or organisation.
3. Improve the answer using one specific suggestion, not a vague comment such as make it better.
4. Share the improved answer with another pair and ask what is now clearer.
5. Write a correction note: I changed _____ because _____.

Teacher check: the final answer should match vocabulary in context, use complete sentences, and show one visible improvement after feedback.

Vocabulary In Context: Practice And Correction

Practice for Vocabulary In Context:

Main outcome: read, speak, listen, write, and edit clearly about vocabulary in context.

1. Choose five words from the topic.
2. Explain each word using your own words.
3. Write one sentence for each word.
4. Exchange sentences with a partner and correct unclear meanings.

Correction check:

- Is the meaning clear?
- Does the answer use topic vocabulary?
- Is there evidence, a reason, or a useful example?
- Have spelling, punctuation, grammar, and sentence order been checked?

Home link: Ask someone at home one question connected to vocabulary in context and turn their answer into two clear sentences.

Vocabulary In Context: Challenge And Remediation

Support and challenge for Vocabulary In Context.

If you need support:

1. Re-read the task and underline the command word.
2. read the sentence before and after the word, test a possible meaning, and write a fresh sentence.
3. Compare your answer with the worked example and copy only the structure, not the words.
4. Ask a specific question: Which word, sentence, detail, or step is still confusing?

If you are ready for a challenge:

1. Create a new reading, vocabulary, speaking, grammar, writing, or editing task connected to vocabulary in context.
2. Answer it in a way another learner can check.
3. Add one reason, evidence line, correction note, or improved sentence.
4. Exchange with a partner and improve the task after feedback.

Check:

- meaning is clear
- language choice fits the task
- spelling, grammar, and structure are checked

Vocabulary In Context: Outcome Check

Outcome check for Vocabulary In Context: Read, speak, listen, write, and edit clearly about vocabulary in context.

Show that you can show the meaning of topic words through context, explanation, and original sentences.

1. Restate the task in your own words so the purpose is clear.
2. Produce a short answer, paragraph, dialogue note, vocabulary explanation, or edited sentence linked to vocabulary in context.
3. Add one piece of evidence, reason, example, or correction note.
4. Read the answer aloud and check whether the meaning is complete.

Learning focus: Introduction To Literature

This English topic connects to an Ethiopian reading, speaking, listening, writing, or discussion task for Introduction To Literature. Read for meaning, evidence, and inference before writing the answer.

Progression focus: build lower-secondary foundations with clear vocabulary and guided application.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- read, speak, listen, write, and edit clearly about introduction to literature

Inquiry questions:

- What evidence, word choice, or sentence control does introduction to literature require?

Success criteria:

- meaning is clear
- language choice fits the task
- spelling, grammar, and structure are checked

Before moving on, make one short answer stronger by adding evidence, improving a sentence, or choosing a clearer word.

Introduction To Literature: Learn

This topic is about reading for meaning. Read in layers: first find what the text is mostly about, then collect two details, then explain how those details prove your answer. Do not copy a whole paragraph when one exact phrase or event is enough.

Mini passage:

In an Ethiopian classroom, a learner reads a short text about introduction to literature. The first paragraph introduces the idea, the middle paragraph gives two actions or details, and the final paragraph shows what changed. A careful reader marks the main idea, underlines two details, and explains how the details support the answer.

Learner move: move from simple answers to short paragraphs with clear evidence.

What to notice in Introduction To Literature:

- Start with the exact task, not a general answer.
- Use a detail from the text, talk, example, or situation.
- Choose words that match the audience and purpose.
- Write or speak in complete, connected sentences.
- Revise one weak sentence after feedback.

Key words:

- Introduction To Literature
- Introduction
- Literature
- read
- listen
- speak
- write
- sentence

Introduction To Literature: Worked Example

Worked example for Introduction To Literature: Answer a comprehension question with evidence.

Question: Why did the group succeed?

Model answer:

The group succeeded because each learner took a clear role. One learner read the instructions, another recorded ideas, and another checked the final answer. This evidence shows teamwork, not luck.

Why it works:

- It answers the question directly.
- It gives two details.
- It explains how the details prove the answer.

Introduction To Literature: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words before you practise Introduction To Literature. In English, vocabulary is useful only when you can understand it in context and use it in your own sentence.

Key words:

- Introduction To Literature
- Introduction
- Literature
- read
- listen
- speak
- write
- sentence

Study routine:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Find or create a sentence where each word makes sense.
3. Explain each word in learner-friendly language.
4. Add one synonym, opposite, word family member, or example where possible.
5. Use one word in a spoken answer and one word in a written answer.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about Introduction To Literature without a clear example, method, or evidence.

Introduction To Literature: Guided Activity

Guided English activity for Introduction To Literature:

Each learner reads the same short text, marks the main idea, and chooses two details that support it. The group then agrees on the strongest evidence and explains why it proves the answer.

Steps:

1. Read or listen to the task twice and underline the command word.
2. Work in pairs so one learner gives the answer and the other checks evidence, vocabulary, grammar, or organisation.
3. Improve the answer using one specific suggestion, not a vague comment such as make it better.
4. Share the improved answer with another pair and ask what is now clearer.
5. Write a correction note: I changed _____ because _____.

Teacher check: the final answer should match introduction to literature, use complete sentences, and show one visible improvement after feedback.

Session 2: Listening And Speaking For School Tasks - Speaking And Listening

Mini dialogue:

A: What point should our group make about listening and speaking for school tasks?

B: We should give one clear idea and one reason.

A: What if someone disagrees?

B: We listen first, then answer politely with evidence or an example.

A: That will make the discussion stronger.

Learner move: move from simple answers to short paragraphs with clear evidence.

Tasks:

1. Prepare a short answer with one reason.
2. Say it to a partner clearly.
3. Listen to the partner and ask one follow-up question.
4. Repeat your answer with better word choice.

Quality check: stay on the topic, use exact words, give evidence or a reason, and improve one sentence after feedback.

Grammar Sentence Control And Tenses: Grammar Focus 2

Session 2: Grammar Sentence Control And Tenses - Grammar Focus

Mini passage:

When a sentence about grammar sentence control and tenses is too long, the reader can lose the meaning. A learner splits one long sentence into two shorter ones, adds a full stop, and checks that each sentence has a subject and a verb.

Learner move: move from simple answers to short paragraphs with clear evidence.

Tasks:

1. Write one short sentence.
2. Add a reason, time phrase, place phrase, or description.
3. Check subject-verb agreement and tense.
4. Correct punctuation.

Quality check: stay on the topic, use exact words, give evidence or a reason, and improve one sentence after feedback.

Paragraph And Friendly Letter Writing: Writing Workshop 2

Session 2: Paragraph And Friendly Letter Writing - Writing Workshop

Mini model:

The first draft gives ideas; the second draft makes them clear. A learner writing about paragraph and friendly letter writing checks whether the paragraph has a beginning, useful details, and a closing sentence that answers the question directly.

Learner move: move from simple answers to short paragraphs with clear evidence.

Tasks:

1. Plan a paragraph before writing.
2. Add two connected details.
3. Write a closing sentence that answers the task.
