KITABU QUEST Grade 9 English

Ethiopia ENC learner book

Mascot: gelada

This KITABU QUEST book turns the curriculum into short lessons, worked examples, guided activities, practice, review, and home links for Ethiopia learners.

How To Use This Book

This book helps Grade 9 learners study English one teachable topic at a time.

1. Start with the inquiry question and say what you already know.
2. Read the Learn section slowly and mark new words.
3. Try the worked example before reading the full solution.
4. Complete the activity and practice tasks.
5. Correct your answer using the success criteria.
6. Ask for support when your answer is still unclear.

Subject method: Read, speak, listen, write, and edit in connected language tasks.

Learning Skills In This Book

Each topic builds knowledge, skill, values, communication, collaboration, critical thinking, creativity, digital awareness, and self-confidence.

Study actively: speak answers aloud, draw when useful, show your working, cite evidence, use local examples, and correct mistakes after feedback.

A strong answer is specific. It names the idea, gives evidence or method, applies it to the task, and checks whether it answers the question.

Table Of Contents

Use this table to move through the book one topic at a time. Each topic has a lesson opener, clear teaching, a model or example, guided work, practice, and checks for understanding.

1. Critical Reading And Text Analysis
2. Vocabulary Register And Tone
3. Debate Discussion And Interview Skills
4. Grammar For Accurate Expression
5. Argumentative And Report Writing
6. Literature Themes Character And Setting
7. Summary And Note Making
8. Form III English Portfolio

As you finish each topic, return to the success criteria and correct one answer before moving on.

Critical Reading And Text Analysis: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: Critical Reading And Text Analysis

This English topic connects to an Ethiopian reading, speaking, listening, writing, or discussion task for Critical Reading And Text Analysis. Read for meaning, evidence, and inference before writing the answer.

Progression focus: apply ideas to unfamiliar situations and justify decisions with evidence.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- read, speak, listen, write, and edit clearly about critical reading and text analysis

Inquiry questions:

- What evidence, word choice, or sentence control does critical reading and text analysis require?

Success criteria:

- meaning is clear
- language choice fits the task
- spelling, grammar, and structure are checked

Before moving on, make one short answer stronger by adding evidence, improving a sentence, or choosing a clearer word.

Critical Reading And Text Analysis: Learn

This topic is about reading for meaning. Read in layers: first find what the text is mostly about, then collect two details, then explain how those details prove your answer. Do not copy a whole paragraph when one exact phrase or event is enough.

Mini passage:

In an Ethiopian classroom, a learner reads a short text about critical reading and text analysis. The first paragraph introduces the idea, the middle paragraph gives two actions or details, and the final paragraph shows what changed. A careful reader marks the main idea, underlines two details, and explains how the details support the answer.

Learner move: analyse the message, support claims with details, and edit for precision.

What to notice in Critical Reading And Text Analysis:

- Start with the exact task, not a general answer.
- Use a detail from the text, talk, example, or situation.
- Choose words that match the audience and purpose.
- Write or speak in complete, connected sentences.
- Revise one weak sentence after feedback.

Key words:

- Critical Reading And Text Analysis
- Critical
- Reading
- Text
- Analysis
- read

Critical Reading And Text Analysis: Worked Example

Worked example for Critical Reading And Text Analysis: Answer a comprehension question with evidence.

Question: Why did the group succeed?

Model answer:

The group succeeded because each learner took a clear role. One learner read the instructions, another recorded ideas, and another checked the final answer. This evidence shows teamwork, not luck.

Why it works:

- It answers the question directly.
- It gives two details.
- It explains how the details prove the answer.

Critical Reading And Text Analysis: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words before you practise Critical Reading And Text Analysis. In English, vocabulary is useful only when you can understand it in context and use it in your own sentence.

Key words:

- Critical Reading And Text Analysis
- Critical
- Reading
- Text
- Analysis
- read
- listen
- speak

Study routine:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Find or create a sentence where each word makes sense.
3. Explain each word in learner-friendly language.
4. Add one synonym, opposite, word family member, or example where possible.
5. Use one word in a spoken answer and one word in a written answer.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about Critical Reading And Text Analysis without a clear example, method, or evidence.

Critical Reading And Text Analysis: Guided Activity

Guided English activity for Critical Reading And Text Analysis:

Each learner reads the same short text, marks the main idea, and chooses two details that support it. The group then agrees on the strongest evidence and explains why it proves the answer.

Steps:

1. Read or listen to the task twice and underline the command word.
2. Work in pairs so one learner gives the answer and the other checks evidence, vocabulary, grammar, or organisation.
3. Improve the answer using one specific suggestion, not a vague comment such as make it better.
4. Share the improved answer with another pair and ask what is now clearer.
5. Write a correction note: I changed _____ because _____.

Teacher check: the final answer should match critical reading and text analysis, use complete sentences, and show one visible improvement after feedback.

Critical Reading And Text Analysis: Practice And Correction

Practice for Critical Reading And Text Analysis:

Main outcome: read, speak, listen, write, and edit clearly about critical reading and text analysis.

1. Read a short text silently.
2. Write the main idea in one sentence.
3. Quote or describe two details that support the answer.
4. Explain how one detail changes your understanding.

Correction check:

- Is the meaning clear?
- Does the answer use topic vocabulary?
- Is there evidence, a reason, or a useful example?
- Have spelling, punctuation, grammar, and sentence order been checked?

Home link: Ask someone at home one question connected to critical reading and text analysis and turn their answer into two clear sentences.

Critical Reading And Text Analysis: Challenge And Remediation

Support and challenge for Critical Reading And Text Analysis.

If you need support:

1. Re-read the task and underline the command word.
2. go back to the passage, mark the sentence that gives the answer, and write why it matters.
3. Compare your answer with the worked example and copy only the structure, not the words.
4. Ask a specific question: Which word, sentence, detail, or step is still confusing?

If you are ready for a challenge:

1. Create a new reading, vocabulary, speaking, grammar, writing, or editing task connected to critical reading and text analysis.
2. Answer it in a way another learner can check.
3. Add one reason, evidence line, correction note, or improved sentence.
4. Exchange with a partner and improve the task after feedback.

Check:

- meaning is clear
- language choice fits the task
- spelling, grammar, and structure are checked

Critical Reading And Text Analysis: Outcome Check

Outcome check for Critical Reading And Text Analysis: Read, speak, listen, write, and edit clearly about critical reading and text analysis.

Show that you can use the text as evidence and explain how the evidence supports your answer.

1. Restate the task in your own words so the purpose is clear.
2. Produce a short answer, paragraph, dialogue note, vocabulary explanation, or edited sentence linked to critical reading and text analysis.
3. Add one piece of evidence, reason, example, or correction note.
4. Read the answer aloud and check whether the meaning is complete.
5. Improve one sentence after feedback and write what changed.

Success criteria:

- meaning is clear
- language choice fits the task
- spelling, grammar, and structure are checked

Vocabulary Register And Tone: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: Vocabulary Register And Tone

This English topic connects to an Ethiopian reading, speaking, listening, writing, or discussion task for Vocabulary Register And Tone. Build word meaning from context, word families, examples, and accurate sentences.

Progression focus: apply ideas to unfamiliar situations and justify decisions with evidence.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- read, speak, listen, write, and edit clearly about vocabulary register and tone

Inquiry questions:

- What evidence, word choice, or sentence control does vocabulary register and tone require?

Success criteria:

- meaning is clear
- language choice fits the task
- spelling, grammar, and structure are checked

Before moving on, make one short answer stronger by adding evidence, improving a sentence, or choosing a clearer word.

Vocabulary Register And Tone: Learn

This topic is about building word power. A strong reader uses clues before and after a word, checks the word family, tests the meaning in the sentence, and then uses the word in a new sentence that still sounds natural.

Mini passage:

A learner meets an unfamiliar word in a passage about vocabulary register and tone. The sentence before it gives a clue, and the sentence after it shows an example. The learner tests a meaning, checks whether the sentence still makes sense, and then writes a new sentence using the word correctly.

Learner move: analyse the message, support claims with details, and edit for precision.

What to notice in Vocabulary Register And Tone:

- Start with the exact task, not a general answer.
- Use a detail from the text, talk, example, or situation.
- Choose words that match the audience and purpose.
- Write or speak in complete, connected sentences.
- Revise one weak sentence after feedback.

Key words:

- Vocabulary Register And Tone
- Vocabulary
- Register
- Tone
- read
- listen
- speak
- write

Vocabulary Register And Tone: Worked Example

Worked example for Vocabulary Register And Tone: Work out a word from context.

Sentence: The monitor arranged the books neatly, so the teacher praised the orderly shelf.

Model answer:

Orderly means neat and well arranged. I know this because the sentence says the monitor arranged the books neatly.

Try the method:

1. Read before and after the word.
2. Guess the meaning.
3. Check whether the sentence still makes sense.

Vocabulary Register And Tone: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words before you practise Vocabulary Register And Tone. In English, vocabulary is useful only when you can understand it in context and use it in your own sentence.

Key words:

- Vocabulary Register And Tone
- Vocabulary
- Register
- Tone
- read
- listen
- speak
- write

Study routine:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Find or create a sentence where each word makes sense.
3. Explain each word in learner-friendly language.
4. Add one synonym, opposite, word family member, or example where possible.
5. Use one word in a spoken answer and one word in a written answer.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about Vocabulary Register And Tone without a clear example, method, or evidence.

Vocabulary Register And Tone: Guided Activity

Guided English activity for Vocabulary Register And Tone:

Each learner chooses two topic words, explains them in simple language, and tests the meaning in a new sentence. The group rejects sentences where the word sounds forced or unclear.

Steps:

1. Read or listen to the task twice and underline the command word.
2. Work in pairs so one learner gives the answer and the other checks evidence, vocabulary, grammar, or organisation.
3. Improve the answer using one specific suggestion, not a vague comment such as make it better.
4. Share the improved answer with another pair and ask what is now clearer.
5. Write a correction note: I changed _____ because _____.

Teacher check: the final answer should match vocabulary register and tone, use complete sentences, and show one visible improvement after feedback.

Vocabulary Register And Tone: Practice And Correction

Practice for Vocabulary Register And Tone:

Main outcome: read, speak, listen, write, and edit clearly about vocabulary register and tone.

Literature Themes Character And Setting: Learn

This topic is about reading for meaning. Read in layers: first find what the text is mostly about, then collect two details, then explain how those details prove your answer. Do not copy a whole paragraph when one exact phrase or event is enough.

Mini passage:

In an Ethiopian classroom, a learner reads a short text about literature themes character and setting. The first paragraph introduces the idea, the middle paragraph gives two actions or details, and the final paragraph shows what changed. A careful reader marks the main idea, underlines two details, and explains how the details support the answer.

Learner move: analyse the message, support claims with details, and edit for precision.

What to notice in Literature Themes Character And Setting:

- Start with the exact task, not a general answer.
- Use a detail from the text, talk, example, or situation.
- Choose words that match the audience and purpose.
- Write or speak in complete, connected sentences.
- Revise one weak sentence after feedback.

Key words:

- Literature Themes Character And Setting
- Literature
- Themes
- Character
- Setting
- read
- listen
- speak

Literature Themes Character And Setting: Worked Example

Worked example for Literature Themes Character And Setting: Answer a comprehension question with evidence.

Question: Why did the group succeed?

Model answer:

The group succeeded because each learner took a clear role. One learner read the instructions, another recorded ideas, and another checked the final answer. This evidence shows teamwork, not luck.

Why it works:

- It answers the question directly.
- It gives two details.
- It explains how the details prove the answer.

Debate Discussion And Interview Skills: Speaking And Listening 2

Session 2: Debate Discussion And Interview Skills - Speaking And Listening

Mini dialogue:

A: What point should our group make about debate discussion and interview skills?

B: We should give one clear idea and one reason.

A: What if someone disagrees?

B: We listen first, then answer politely with evidence or an example.

A: That will make the discussion stronger.

Learner move: analyse the message, support claims with details, and edit for precision.

Tasks:

1. Prepare a short answer with one reason.
2. Say it to a partner clearly.
3. Listen to the partner and ask one follow-up question.
4. Repeat your answer with better word choice.

Quality check: stay on the topic, use exact words, give evidence or a reason, and improve one sentence after feedback.

Grammar For Accurate Expression: Grammar Focus 2

Session 2: Grammar For Accurate Expression - Grammar Focus

Mini passage:

When a sentence about grammar for accurate expression is too long, the reader can lose the meaning. A learner splits one long sentence into two shorter ones, adds a full stop, and checks that each sentence has a subject and a verb.

Learner move: analyse the message, support claims with details, and edit for precision.

Tasks:

1. Write one short sentence.
2. Add a reason, time phrase, place phrase, or description.
3. Check subject-verb agreement and tense.
4. Correct punctuation.

Quality check: stay on the topic, use exact words, give evidence or a reason, and improve one sentence after feedback.

Argumentative And Report Writing: Writing Workshop 2

Session 2: Argumentative And Report Writing - Writing Workshop

Mini model:

The first draft gives ideas; the second draft makes them clear. A learner writing about argumentative and report writing checks whether the paragraph has a beginning, useful details, and a closing sentence that answers the question directly.

Learner move: analyse the message, support claims with details, and edit for precision.

Tasks:

1. Plan a paragraph before writing.
2. Add two connected details.
3. Write a closing sentence that answers the task.

Critical Reading And Text Analysis: Reading Practice 3

Session 3: Critical Reading And Text Analysis - Reading Practice

Mini passage:

In an Ethiopian classroom, a learner reads a short text about critical reading and text analysis. The first paragraph introduces the idea, the middle paragraph gives two actions or details, and the final paragraph shows what changed. A careful reader marks the main idea, underlines two details, and explains how the details support the answer.

Learner move: analyse the message, support claims with details, and edit for precision.

Tasks:

1. Read the mini passage twice.
2. Write the main idea.
3. Find two details and explain what they prove.
4. Write one question a careful reader should ask.

Quality check: stay on the topic, use exact words, give evidence or a reason, and improve one sentence after feedback.

Vocabulary Register And Tone: Vocabulary Builder 3

Session 3: Vocabulary Register And Tone - Vocabulary Builder

Mini passage:

A learner meets an unfamiliar word in a passage about vocabulary register and tone. The sentence before it gives a clue, and the sentence after it shows an example. The learner tests a meaning, checks whether the sentence still makes sense, and then writes a new sentence using the word correctly.

Learner move: analyse the message, support claims with details, and edit for precision.

Tasks:

1. Choose four useful words.
2. Write a learner-friendly meaning for each word.
3. Use each word in a sentence about school, home, community, or reading.
4. Replace one vague word with a stronger topic word.

Quality check: stay on the topic, use exact words, give evidence or a reason, and improve one sentence after feedback.

Debate Discussion And Interview Skills: Speaking And Listening 3

Session 3: Debate Discussion And Interview Skills - Speaking And Listening

Mini situation:

A learner prepares a short talk about debate discussion and interview skills. He writes three cue words, practises the first sentence, and checks his voice with a partner. When he speaks, he looks up, gives one example, and answers a follow-up question calmly.

Learner move: analyse the message, support claims with details, and edit for precision.

Tasks:

1. Prepare a short answer with one reason.
2. Say it to a partner clearly.
3. Listen to the partner and ask one follow-up question.
