

KITABU QUEST

S5

General Studies and Communication Skills

Mascot: hare

Scene: students discussing national, ethical, communication, and study-skills issues with a friendly hare mascot

CBC aligned draft learner book

Think • Explore • Achieve

Generated by Kitabu AI Learning Studio

Title Page

KITABU QUEST S5 General Studies and Communication Skills

Rwanda REB-CBC learner book

Mascot: hare

This KITABU QUEST book turns the curriculum into short lessons, worked examples, guided activities, practice, review, and home links for Rwanda learners.

How To Use This Book

This book helps S5 learners study General Studies and Communication Skills one teachable topic at a time.

1. Start with the inquiry question and say what you already know.
2. Read the Learn section slowly and mark new words.
3. Try the worked example before reading the full solution.
4. Complete the activity and practice tasks.
5. Correct your answer using the success criteria.
6. Ask for support when your answer is still unclear.

Subject method: Learn through examples, activities, practice, and reflection.

Learning Skills In This Book

Each topic builds knowledge, skill, values, communication, collaboration, critical thinking, creativity, digital awareness, and self-confidence.

Study actively: speak answers aloud, draw when useful, show your working, cite evidence, use local examples, and correct mistakes after feedback.

A strong answer is specific. It names the idea, gives evidence or method, applies it to the task, and checks whether it answers the question.

Table Of Contents

Use this table to move through the book one topic at a time. Each topic has a lesson opener, clear teaching, a model or example, guided work, practice, and checks for understanding.

1. Conflict Management
2. Leadership, Governance and Management
3. International Relations
4. Multinational Corporations
5. Money and Finance
6. Tourism, & Development
7. Environment and Sustainable Development
8. Importance of ICT in development
9. Writing official documents and mass media
10. Fight against cultural discrimination
11. Gender-Based Violence and Child Abuse
12. Forms (oral and written) and Genres of Literature

As you finish each topic, return to the success criteria and correct one answer before moving on.

Conflict Management: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: Conflict Management

Country link: a Rwanda school, home, or community example for Conflict Management.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- manage conflicts

Inquiry questions:

- How can conflict management help you solve a real problem in General Studies and Communication Skills?

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Conflict Management: Learn

Conflict Management becomes easier when you connect the idea to a real situation, name the important vocabulary, and practise one step at a time.

Learning routine:

1. Look at a real situation in Rwanda.
2. Name the exact idea or skill.
3. Explain it in simple words.
4. Work through one model example.
5. Try a similar task independently.
6. Correct your answer using the success criteria.

Key words:

- Conflict Management
- Conflict
- Management
- idea
- skill
- example
- practice
- correction

Conflict Management: Worked Example

Evidence model for Conflict Management: Teach a real example clearly.

1. Name the place, group, object, source, skill, or issue.
2. Give two facts or observations from the lesson.
3. Explain why the example matters in Rwanda.
4. Add one responsible action, improvement, or reflection.
5. Check that your response uses the exact vocabulary from General Studies and Communication Skills.

Conflict Management: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words and study moves before you practise Conflict Management. Good vocabulary helps you read the question, choose the right method, and explain your answer clearly.

Key words:

- Conflict Management
- Conflict
- Management
- idea
- skill
- example
- practice
- correction

Study skill:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Say each word in your own words.
3. Give one example from Rwanda.
4. Use each word in a correct sentence, calculation step, diagram label, or oral answer.
5. Ask a partner to check whether your example matches the topic.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about Conflict Management without a clear example, method, or evidence.

Conflict Management: Guided Activity

Work with a partner or small group.

1. Read the inquiry question again.
2. Choose one real situation linked to a Rwanda school, home, or community example for Conflict Management.
3. Decide what evidence, method, vocabulary, tool, text, map, diagram, movement, or example is needed.
4. Complete the task together and explain each step aloud.
5. Compare your answer with another group.
6. Improve one part after feedback.

Group role check: one learner reads the task, one records ideas, one checks vocabulary or working, and one reports the answer.

Conflict Management: Practice And Correction

Practice for Conflict Management:

1. Use a Rwanda case study for Conflict Management: manage conflicts. Name the issue, stakeholders, evidence, responsible action, and reflection.

Correction check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Reflection: What was clear? What needs more practice? What question will you ask your teacher or study partner?

Home link: Ask someone at home for one safe example related to conflict management and write two useful sentences about it.

Conflict Management: Challenge And Remediation

Use this page after practice.

If you need support:

1. Re-read the success criteria.
2. Copy the worked example steps as headings.
3. Replace the model details with details from Conflict Management.
4. Ask one clear question about the step that is confusing.

If you are ready for a challenge:

1. Create a new task from school, home, community, environment, technology, sport, art, market, or fieldwork.
2. Solve or answer it using correct vocabulary.
3. Explain why your answer is reasonable.
4. Write one extension question for a classmate.

Check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Conflict Management: Outcome Check

Show that you can manage conflicts.

Before answering, reread the topic title and choose the exact vocabulary, method, evidence, tool, diagram, or example that fits this outcome.

1. State the main idea in one clear sentence.
2. Give one example, method, source, observation, or piece of evidence from this topic.
3. Complete a short task that applies the idea.
4. Check your answer against the success criteria.
5. Write one correction or next step.

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Leadership, Governance and Management: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: Leadership, Governance and Management

Country link: a Rwanda school, home, or community example for Leadership, Governance and Management.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- criticise and improve different leadership styles

Inquiry questions:

- How can leadership, governance and management help you solve a real problem in General Studies and Communication Skills?

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Leadership, Governance and Management: Learn

Leadership, Governance and Management becomes easier when you connect the idea to a real situation, name the important vocabulary, and practise one step at a time.

Learning routine:

1. Look at a real situation in Rwanda.
2. Name the exact idea or skill.
3. Explain it in simple words.
4. Work through one model example.
5. Try a similar task independently.
6. Correct your answer using the success criteria.

Key words:

- Leadership, Governance and Management
- Leadership
- Governance
- Management
- idea
- skill
- example
- practice

Leadership, Governance and Management: Worked Example

Evidence model for Leadership, Governance and Management: Teach a real example clearly.

1. Name the place, group, object, source, skill, or issue.
2. Give two facts or observations from the lesson.
3. Explain why the example matters in Rwanda.
4. Add one responsible action, improvement, or reflection.
5. Check that your response uses the exact vocabulary from General Studies and Communication Skills.

Leadership, Governance and Management: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words and study moves before you practise Leadership, Governance and Management. Good vocabulary helps you read the question, choose the right method, and explain your answer clearly.

Key words:

- Leadership, Governance and Management
- Leadership
- Governance
- Management
- idea
- skill
- example
- practice

Study skill:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Say each word in your own words.
3. Give one example from Rwanda.
4. Use each word in a correct sentence, calculation step, diagram label, or oral answer.
5. Ask a partner to check whether your example matches the topic.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about Leadership, Governance and Management without a clear example, method, or evidence.

Leadership, Governance and Management: Guided Activity

Work with a partner or small group.

1. Read the inquiry question again.
2. Choose one real situation linked to a Rwanda school, home, or community example for Leadership, Governance and Management.
3. Decide what evidence, method, vocabulary, tool, text, map, diagram, movement, or example is needed.
4. Complete the task together and explain each step aloud.
5. Compare your answer with another group.
6. Improve one part after feedback.

Group role check: one learner reads the task, one records ideas, one checks vocabulary or working, and one reports the answer.

Leadership, Governance and Management: Practice And Correction

Practice for Leadership, Governance and Management:

1. Use a Rwanda case study for Leadership, Governance and Management: criticise and improve different leadership styles. Name the issue, stakeholders, evidence, responsible action, and reflection.

Correction check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Reflection: What was clear? What needs more practice? What question will you ask your teacher or study partner?

Home link: Ask someone at home for one safe example related to leadership, governance and management and write two useful sentences about it.

Leadership, Governance and Management: Challenge And Remediation

Use this page after practice.

If you need support:

1. Re-read the success criteria.
2. Copy the worked example steps as headings.
3. Replace the model details with details from Leadership, Governance and Management.
4. Ask one clear question about the step that is confusing.

If you are ready for a challenge:

1. Create a new task from school, home, community, environment, technology, sport, art, market, or fieldwork.
2. Solve or answer it using correct vocabulary.
3. Explain why your answer is reasonable.
4. Write one extension question for a classmate.

Check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Leadership, Governance and Management: Outcome Check

Show that you can criticise and improve different leadership styles.

Before answering, reread the topic title and choose the exact vocabulary, method, evidence, tool, diagram, or example that fits this outcome.

1. State the main idea in one clear sentence.
2. Give one example, method, source, observation, or piece of evidence from this topic.
3. Complete a short task that applies the idea.
4. Check your answer against the success criteria.
5. Write one correction or next step.

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

International Relations: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: International Relations

Country link: a Rwanda school, home, or community example for International Relations.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- analyse the influence of imperialism, post-colonial nationalism, neo-colonialism, and geopolitics on developing countries

Inquiry questions:

- How can international relations help you solve a real problem in General Studies and Communication Skills?

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

International Relations: Learn

International Relations becomes easier when you connect the idea to a real situation, name the important vocabulary, and practise one step at a time.

Learning routine:

1. Look at a real situation in Rwanda.
2. Name the exact idea or skill.
3. Explain it in simple words.
4. Work through one model example.
5. Try a similar task independently.
6. Correct your answer using the success criteria.

Key words:

- International Relations
- International
- Relations
- idea
- skill

International Relations: Worked Example

Evidence model for International Relations: Teach a real example clearly.

1. Name the place, group, object, source, skill, or issue.
2. Give two facts or observations from the lesson.
3. Explain why the example matters in Rwanda.
4. Add one responsible action, improvement, or reflection.
5. Check that your response uses the exact vocabulary from General Studies and Communication Skills.

International Relations: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words and study moves before you practise International Relations. Good vocabulary helps you read the question, choose the right method, and explain your answer clearly.

Key words:

- International Relations
- International
- Relations
- idea
- skill
- example
- practice
- correction

Study skill:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Say each word in your own words.
3. Give one example from Rwanda.
4. Use each word in a correct sentence, calculation step, diagram label, or oral answer.
5. Ask a partner to check whether your example matches the topic.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about International Relations without a clear example, method, or evidence.

International Relations: Guided Activity

Work with a partner or small group.

1. Read the inquiry question again.
2. Choose one real situation linked to a Rwanda school, home, or community example for International Relations.
3. Decide what evidence, method, vocabulary, tool, text, map, diagram, movement, or example is needed.
4. Complete the task together and explain each step aloud.
5. Compare your answer with another group.
6. Improve one part after feedback.

Group role check: one learner reads the task, one records ideas, one checks vocabulary or working, and one reports the answer.

International Relations: Practice And Correction

Practice for International Relations:

1. Use a Rwanda case study for International Relations: analyse the influence of imperialism, post-colonial nationalism, neo-colonialism, and geopolitics on developing countries. Name the issue, stakeholders, evidence, responsible action, and reflection.

Correction check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Reflection: What was clear? What needs more practice? What question will you ask your teacher or study partner?

Home link: Ask someone at home for one safe example related to international relations and write two useful sentences about it.

International Relations: Challenge And Remediation

Use this page after practice.

If you need support:

1. Re-read the success criteria.
2. Copy the worked example steps as headings.
3. Replace the model details with details from International Relations.
4. Ask one clear question about the step that is confusing.

If you are ready for a challenge:

1. Create a new task from school, home, community, environment, technology, sport, art, market, or fieldwork.
2. Solve or answer it using correct vocabulary.
3. Explain why your answer is reasonable.
4. Write one extension question for a classmate.

Check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

International Relations: Outcome Check

Show that you can analyse the influence of imperialism, post-colonial nationalism, neo-colonialism, and geopolitics on developing countries.

Before answering, reread the topic title and choose the exact vocabulary, method, evidence, tool, diagram, or example that fits this outcome.

1. State the main idea in one clear sentence.
2. Give one example, method, source, observation, or piece of evidence from this topic.
3. Complete a short task that applies the idea.
4. Check your answer against the success criteria.
5. Write one correction or next step.

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Multinational Corporations: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: Multinational Corporations

Country link: a Rwanda school, home, or community example for Multinational Corporations.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- ability to analyse the role of multinational corporations in host countries

Inquiry questions:

- How can multinational corporations help you solve a real problem in General Studies and Communication Skills?

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Multinational Corporations: Learn

Multinational Corporations becomes easier when you connect the idea to a real situation, name the important vocabulary, and practise one step at a time.

Learning routine:

1. Look at a real situation in Rwanda.
2. Name the exact idea or skill.
3. Explain it in simple words.
4. Work through one model example.
5. Try a similar task independently.
6. Correct your answer using the success criteria.

Key words:

- Multinational Corporations
- Multinational
- Corporations
- idea
- skill
- example
- practice

Multinational Corporations: Worked Example

Evidence model for Multinational Corporations: Teach a real example clearly.

1. Name the place, group, object, source, skill, or issue.
2. Give two facts or observations from the lesson.
3. Explain why the example matters in Rwanda.
4. Add one responsible action, improvement, or reflection.
5. Check that your response uses the exact vocabulary from General Studies and Communication Skills.

Multinational Corporations: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words and study moves before you practise Multinational Corporations. Good vocabulary helps you read the question, choose the right method, and explain your answer clearly.

Key words:

- Multinational Corporations
- Multinational
- Corporations
- idea
- skill
- example
- practice
- correction

Study skill:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Say each word in your own words.
3. Give one example from Rwanda.
4. Use each word in a correct sentence, calculation step, diagram label, or oral answer.
5. Ask a partner to check whether your example matches the topic.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about Multinational Corporations without a clear example, method, or evidence.

Multinational Corporations: Guided Activity

Work with a partner or small group.

1. Read the inquiry question again.
2. Choose one real situation linked to a Rwanda school, home, or community example for Multinational Corporations.
3. Decide what evidence, method, vocabulary, tool, text, map, diagram, movement, or example is needed.
4. Complete the task together and explain each step aloud.
5. Compare your answer with another group.
6. Improve one part after feedback.

Group role check: one learner reads the task, one records ideas, one checks vocabulary or working, and one reports the answer.

Multinational Corporations: Practice And Correction

Practice for Multinational Corporations:

1. Use a Rwanda case study for Multinational Corporations: ability to analyse the role of multinational corporations in host countries. Name the issue, stakeholders, evidence, responsible action, and reflection.

Correction check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Reflection: What was clear? What needs more practice? What question will you ask your teacher or study partner?

Home link: Ask someone at home for one safe example related to multinational corporations and write two useful sentences about it.

Multinational Corporations: Challenge And Remediation

Use this page after practice.

If you need support:

1. Re-read the success criteria.
2. Copy the worked example steps as headings.
3. Replace the model details with details from Multinational Corporations.
4. Ask one clear question about the step that is confusing.

If you are ready for a challenge:

1. Create a new task from school, home, community, environment, technology, sport, art, market, or fieldwork.
2. Solve or answer it using correct vocabulary.
3. Explain why your answer is reasonable.
4. Write one extension question for a classmate.

Check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Multinational Corporations: Outcome Check

Show that you can ability to analyse the role of multinational corporations in host countries.

Before answering, reread the topic title and choose the exact vocabulary, method, evidence, tool, diagram, or example that fits this outcome.

1. State the main idea in one clear sentence.
2. Give one example, method, source, observation, or piece of evidence from this topic.
3. Complete a short task that applies the idea.
4. Check your answer against the success criteria.
5. Write one correction or next step.

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Money and Finance: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: Money and Finance

Country link: a Rwanda school, home, or community example for Money and Finance.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- justify the role of financial institutions to the individual, the community & the country

Inquiry questions:

- How can money and finance help you solve a real problem in General Studies and Communication Skills?

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Money and Finance: Learn

Money and Finance becomes easier when you connect the idea to a real situation, name the important vocabulary, and practise one step at a time.

Learning routine:

1. Look at a real situation in Rwanda.
2. Name the exact idea or skill.
3. Explain it in simple words.
4. Work through one model example.
5. Try a similar task independently.
6. Correct your answer using the success criteria.

Key words:

- Money and Finance
- Money
- Finance
- idea
- skill
- example
- practice

Money and Finance: Worked Example

Evidence model for Money and Finance: Teach a real example clearly.

1. Name the place, group, object, source, skill, or issue.
2. Give two facts or observations from the lesson.
3. Explain why the example matters in Rwanda.
4. Add one responsible action, improvement, or reflection.
5. Check that your response uses the exact vocabulary from General Studies and Communication Skills.

Money and Finance: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words and study moves before you practise Money and Finance. Good vocabulary helps you read the question, choose the right method, and explain your answer clearly.

Key words:

- Money and Finance
- Money
- Finance
- idea
- skill
- example
- practice
- correction

Study skill:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Say each word in your own words.
3. Give one example from Rwanda.
4. Use each word in a correct sentence, calculation step, diagram label, or oral answer.
5. Ask a partner to check whether your example matches the topic.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about Money and Finance without a clear example, method, or evidence.

Money and Finance: Guided Activity

Work with a partner or small group.

1. Read the inquiry question again.
2. Choose one real situation linked to a Rwanda school, home, or community example for Money and Finance.
3. Decide what evidence, method, vocabulary, tool, text, map, diagram, movement, or example is needed.
4. Complete the task together and explain each step aloud.
5. Compare your answer with another group.
6. Improve one part after feedback.

Group role check: one learner reads the task, one records ideas, one checks vocabulary or working, and one reports the answer.

Money and Finance: Practice And Correction

Practice for Money and Finance:

1. Use a Rwanda case study for Money and Finance: justify the role of financial institutions to the individual, the community & the country. Name the issue, stakeholders, evidence, responsible action, and reflection.

Correction check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Reflection: What was clear? What needs more practice? What question will you ask your teacher or study partner?

Home link: Ask someone at home for one safe example related to money and finance and write two useful sentences about it.

Money and Finance: Challenge And Remediation

Use this page after practice.

If you need support:

1. Re-read the success criteria.
2. Copy the worked example steps as headings.
3. Replace the model details with details from Money and Finance.
4. Ask one clear question about the step that is confusing.

If you are ready for a challenge:

1. Create a new task from school, home, community, environment, technology, sport, art, market, or fieldwork.
2. Solve or answer it using correct vocabulary.
3. Explain why your answer is reasonable.
4. Write one extension question for a classmate.

Check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Money and Finance: Outcome Check

Show that you can justify the role of financial institutions to the individual, the community & the country.

Before answering, reread the topic title and choose the exact vocabulary, method, evidence, tool, diagram, or example that fits this outcome.

1. State the main idea in one clear sentence.
2. Give one example, method, source, observation, or piece of evidence from this topic.
3. Complete a short task that applies the idea.
4. Check your answer against the success criteria.
5. Write one correction or next step.

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Tourism, & Development: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: Tourism, & Development

Country link: a Rwanda school, home, or community example for Tourism, & Development.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- debate the contribution of tourism, on sustainable development

Inquiry questions:

- How can tourism, & development help you solve a real problem in General Studies and Communication Skills?

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Tourism, & Development: Learn

Tourism, & Development becomes easier when you connect the idea to a real situation, name the important vocabulary, and practise one step at a time.

Learning routine:

1. Look at a real situation in Rwanda.
2. Name the exact idea or skill.
3. Explain it in simple words.
4. Work through one model example.
5. Try a similar task independently.
6. Correct your answer using the success criteria.

Key words:

- Tourism, & Development
- Tourism
- Development
- idea
- skill
- example
- practice

Tourism, & Development: Worked Example

Evidence model for Tourism, & Development: Teach a real example clearly.

1. Name the place, group, object, source, skill, or issue.
2. Give two facts or observations from the lesson.
3. Explain why the example matters in Rwanda.
4. Add one responsible action, improvement, or reflection.
5. Check that your response uses the exact vocabulary from General Studies and Communication Skills.

Tourism, & Development: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words and study moves before you practise Tourism, & Development. Good vocabulary helps you read the question, choose the right method, and explain your answer clearly.

Key words:

- Tourism, & Development
- Tourism
- Development
- idea
- skill
- example
- practice
- correction

Study skill:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Say each word in your own words.
3. Give one example from Rwanda.
4. Use each word in a correct sentence, calculation step, diagram label, or oral answer.
5. Ask a partner to check whether your example matches the topic.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about Tourism, & Development without a clear example, method, or evidence.

Tourism, & Development: Guided Activity

Work with a partner or small group.

1. Read the inquiry question again.
2. Choose one real situation linked to a Rwanda school, home, or community example for Tourism, & Development.
3. Decide what evidence, method, vocabulary, tool, text, map, diagram, movement, or example is needed.
4. Complete the task together and explain each step aloud.
5. Compare your answer with another group.
6. Improve one part after feedback.

Group role check: one learner reads the task, one records ideas, one checks vocabulary or working, and one reports the answer.

Tourism, & Development: Practice And Correction

Practice for Tourism, & Development:

1. Use a Rwanda case study for Tourism, & Development: debate the contribution of tourism, on sustainable development. Name the issue, stakeholders, evidence, responsible action, and reflection.

Correction check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Reflection: What was clear? What needs more practice? What question will you ask your teacher or study partner?

Home link: Ask someone at home for one safe example related to tourism, & development and write two useful sentences about it.

Tourism, & Development: Challenge And Remediation

Use this page after practice.

If you need support:

1. Re-read the success criteria.
2. Copy the worked example steps as headings.
3. Replace the model details with details from Tourism, & Development.
4. Ask one clear question about the step that is confusing.

If you are ready for a challenge:

1. Create a new task from school, home, community, environment, technology, sport, art, market, or fieldwork.
2. Solve or answer it using correct vocabulary.
3. Explain why your answer is reasonable.
4. Write one extension question for a classmate.

Check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Tourism, & Development: Outcome Check

Show that you can debate the contribution of tourism, on sustainable development.

Before answering, reread the topic title and choose the exact vocabulary, method, evidence, tool, diagram, or example that fits this outcome.

1. State the main idea in one clear sentence.
2. Give one example, method, source, observation, or piece of evidence from this topic.
3. Complete a short task that applies the idea.
4. Check your answer against the success criteria.
5. Write one correction or next step.

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Environment and Sustainable Development: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: Environment and Sustainable Development

Country link: a Rwanda school, home, or community example for Environment and Sustainable Development.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- propose solutions about the impact human activities have on the environment

Inquiry questions:

- How can environment and sustainable development help you solve a real problem in General Studies and Communication Skills?

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Environment and Sustainable Development: Learn

Environment and Sustainable Development becomes easier when you connect the idea to a real situation, name the important vocabulary, and practise one step at a time.

Learning routine:

1. Look at a real situation in Rwanda.
2. Name the exact idea or skill.
3. Explain it in simple words.
4. Work through one model example.
5. Try a similar task independently.
6. Correct your answer using the success criteria.

Key words:

- Environment and Sustainable Development
- Environment
- Sustainable
- Development
- idea
- skill
- example
- practice

Environment and Sustainable Development: Worked Example

Evidence model for Environment and Sustainable Development: Teach a real example clearly.

1. Name the place, group, object, source, skill, or issue.
2. Give two facts or observations from the lesson.
3. Explain why the example matters in Rwanda.
4. Add one responsible action, improvement, or reflection.
5. Check that your response uses the exact vocabulary from General Studies and Communication Skills.

Environment and Sustainable Development: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words and study moves before you practise Environment and Sustainable Development. Good vocabulary helps you read the question, choose the right method, and explain your answer clearly.

Key words:

- Environment and Sustainable Development
- Environment
- Sustainable
- Development
- idea
- skill
- example
- practice

Study skill:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Say each word in your own words.
3. Give one example from Rwanda.
4. Use each word in a correct sentence, calculation step, diagram label, or oral answer.
5. Ask a partner to check whether your example matches the topic.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about Environment and Sustainable Development without a clear example, method, or evidence.

Environment and Sustainable Development: Guided Activity

Work with a partner or small group.

1. Read the inquiry question again.
2. Choose one real situation linked to a Rwanda school, home, or community example for Environment and Sustainable Development.
3. Decide what evidence, method, vocabulary, tool, text, map, diagram, movement, or example is needed.
4. Complete the task together and explain each step aloud.
5. Compare your answer with another group.
6. Improve one part after feedback.

Group role check: one learner reads the task, one records ideas, one checks vocabulary or working, and one reports the answer.

Environment and Sustainable Development: Practice And Correction

Practice for Environment and Sustainable Development:

1. Use a Rwanda case study for Environment and Sustainable Development: propose solutions about the impact human activities have on the environment. Name the issue, stakeholders, evidence, responsible action, and reflection.

Correction check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Reflection: What was clear? What needs more practice? What question will you ask your teacher or study partner?

Home link: Ask someone at home for one safe example related to environment and sustainable development and write two useful sentences about it.

Environment and Sustainable Development: Challenge And Remediation

Use this page after practice.

If you need support:

1. Re-read the success criteria.
2. Copy the worked example steps as headings.
3. Replace the model details with details from Environment and Sustainable Development.
4. Ask one clear question about the step that is confusing.

If you are ready for a challenge:

1. Create a new task from school, home, community, environment, technology, sport, art, market, or fieldwork.
2. Solve or answer it using correct vocabulary.
3. Explain why your answer is reasonable.
4. Write one extension question for a classmate.

Check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Environment and Sustainable Development: Outcome Check

Show that you can propose solutions about the impact human activities have on the environment.

Before answering, reread the topic title and choose the exact vocabulary, method, evidence, tool, diagram, or example that fits this outcome.

1. State the main idea in one clear sentence.
2. Give one example, method, source, observation, or piece of evidence from this topic.
3. Complete a short task that applies the idea.
4. Check your answer against the success criteria.
5. Write one correction or next step.

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Importance of ICT in development: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: Importance of ICT in development

Country link: a Rwanda school, home, or community example for Importance of ICT in development.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- justify the role of ICT in developing international exchange

Inquiry questions:

- How can importance of ict in development help you solve a real problem in General Studies and Communication Skills?

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Importance of ICT in development: Learn

Importance of ICT in development becomes easier when you connect the idea to a real situation, name the important vocabulary, and practise one step at a time.

Learning routine:

1. Look at a real situation in Rwanda.
2. Name the exact idea or skill.
3. Explain it in simple words.
4. Work through one model example.
5. Try a similar task independently.
6. Correct your answer using the success criteria.

Key words:

- Importance of ICT in development
- Importance
- development
- idea
- skill
- example

Importance of ICT in development: Worked Example

Evidence model for Importance of ICT in development: Teach a real example clearly.

1. Name the place, group, object, source, skill, or issue.
2. Give two facts or observations from the lesson.
3. Explain why the example matters in Rwanda.
4. Add one responsible action, improvement, or reflection.
5. Check that your response uses the exact vocabulary from General Studies and Communication Skills.

Importance of ICT in development: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words and study moves before you practise Importance of ICT in development. Good vocabulary helps you read the question, choose the right method, and explain your answer clearly.

Key words:

- Importance of ICT in development
- Importance
- development
- idea
- skill
- example
- practice
- correction

Study skill:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Say each word in your own words.
3. Give one example from Rwanda.
4. Use each word in a correct sentence, calculation step, diagram label, or oral answer.
5. Ask a partner to check whether your example matches the topic.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about Importance of ICT in development without a clear example, method, or evidence.

Importance of ICT in development: Guided Activity

Work with a partner or small group.

1. Read the inquiry question again.
2. Choose one real situation linked to a Rwanda school, home, or community example for Importance of ICT in development.
3. Decide what evidence, method, vocabulary, tool, text, map, diagram, movement, or example is needed.
4. Complete the task together and explain each step aloud.
5. Compare your answer with another group.
6. Improve one part after feedback.

Group role check: one learner reads the task, one records ideas, one checks vocabulary or working, and one reports the answer.

Importance of ICT in development: Practice And Correction

Practice for Importance of ICT in development:

1. Use a Rwanda case study for Importance of ICT in development: justify the role of ICT in developing international exchange. Name the issue, stakeholders, evidence, responsible action, and reflection.

Correction check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Reflection: What was clear? What needs more practice? What question will you ask your teacher or study partner?

Home link: Ask someone at home for one safe example related to importance of ict in development and write two useful sentences about it.

Importance of ICT in development: Challenge And Remediation

Use this page after practice.

If you need support:

1. Re-read the success criteria.
2. Copy the worked example steps as headings.
3. Replace the model details with details from Importance of ICT in development.
4. Ask one clear question about the step that is confusing.

If you are ready for a challenge:

1. Create a new task from school, home, community, environment, technology, sport, art, market, or fieldwork.
2. Solve or answer it using correct vocabulary.
3. Explain why your answer is reasonable.
4. Write one extension question for a classmate.

Check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Importance of ICT in development: Outcome Check

Show that you can justify the role of ICT in developing international exchange.

Before answering, reread the topic title and choose the exact vocabulary, method, evidence, tool, diagram, or example that fits this outcome.

1. State the main idea in one clear sentence.
2. Give one example, method, source, observation, or piece of evidence from this topic.
3. Complete a short task that applies the idea.
4. Check your answer against the success criteria.
5. Write one correction or next step.

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Writing official documents and mass media: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: Writing official documents and mass media

Country link: a Rwanda school, home, or community example for Writing official documents and mass media.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- judge and react effectively to the information received

Inquiry questions:

- How can writing official documents and mass media help you solve a real problem in General Studies and Communication Skills?

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Writing official documents and mass media: Learn

Writing official documents and mass media becomes easier when you connect the idea to a real situation, name the important vocabulary, and practise one step at a time.

Learning routine:

1. Look at a real situation in Rwanda.
2. Name the exact idea or skill.
3. Explain it in simple words.
4. Work through one model example.
5. Try a similar task independently.
6. Correct your answer using the success criteria.

Key words:

- Writing official documents and mass media
- Writing
- official
- documents
- mass
- media

Writing official documents and mass media: Worked Example

Evidence model for Writing official documents and mass media: Teach a real example clearly.

1. Name the place, group, object, source, skill, or issue.
2. Give two facts or observations from the lesson.
3. Explain why the example matters in Rwanda.
4. Add one responsible action, improvement, or reflection.
5. Check that your response uses the exact vocabulary from General Studies and Communication Skills.

Writing official documents and mass media: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words and study moves before you practise Writing official documents and mass media. Good vocabulary helps you read the question, choose the right method, and explain your answer clearly.

Key words:

- Writing official documents and mass media
- Writing
- official
- documents
- mass
- media
- idea
- skill

Study skill:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Say each word in your own words.
3. Give one example from Rwanda.
4. Use each word in a correct sentence, calculation step, diagram label, or oral answer.
5. Ask a partner to check whether your example matches the topic.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about Writing official documents and mass media without a clear example, method, or evidence.

Writing official documents and mass media: Guided Activity

Work with a partner or small group.

1. Read the inquiry question again.
2. Choose one real situation linked to a Rwanda school, home, or community example for Writing official documents and mass media.
3. Decide what evidence, method, vocabulary, tool, text, map, diagram, movement, or example is needed.
4. Complete the task together and explain each step aloud.
5. Compare your answer with another group.
6. Improve one part after feedback.

Group role check: one learner reads the task, one records ideas, one checks vocabulary or working, and one reports the answer.

Writing official documents and mass media: Practice And Correction

Practice for Writing official documents and mass media:

1. Use a Rwanda case study for Writing official documents and mass media: judge and react effectively to the information received. Name the issue, stakeholders, evidence, responsible action, and reflection.

Correction check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Reflection: What was clear? What needs more practice? What question will you ask your teacher or study partner?

Home link: Ask someone at home for one safe example related to writing official documents and mass media and write two useful sentences about it.

Writing official documents and mass media: Challenge And Remediation

Use this page after practice.

If you need support:

1. Re-read the success criteria.
2. Copy the worked example steps as headings.
3. Replace the model details with details from Writing official documents and mass media.
4. Ask one clear question about the step that is confusing.

If you are ready for a challenge:

1. Create a new task from school, home, community, environment, technology, sport, art, market, or fieldwork.
2. Solve or answer it using correct vocabulary.
3. Explain why your answer is reasonable.
4. Write one extension question for a classmate.

Check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Writing official documents and mass media: Outcome Check

Show that you can judge and react effectively to the information received.

Before answering, reread the topic title and choose the exact vocabulary, method, evidence, tool, diagram, or example that fits this outcome.

1. State the main idea in one clear sentence.
2. Give one example, method, source, observation, or piece of evidence from this topic.
3. Complete a short task that applies the idea.
4. Check your answer against the success criteria.
5. Write one correction or next step.

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Fight against cultural discrimination: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: Fight against cultural discrimination

Country link: a Rwanda school, home, or community example for Fight against cultural discrimination.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- identify and avoid any form of cultural discrimination

Inquiry questions:

- How can fight against cultural discrimination help you solve a real problem in General Studies and Communication Skills?

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Fight against cultural discrimination: Learn

Fight against cultural discrimination becomes easier when you connect the idea to a real situation, name the important vocabulary, and practise one step at a time.

Learning routine:

1. Look at a real situation in Rwanda.
2. Name the exact idea or skill.
3. Explain it in simple words.
4. Work through one model example.
5. Try a similar task independently.
6. Correct your answer using the success criteria.

Key words:

- Fight against cultural discrimination
- Fight
- against
- cultural
- discrimination
- idea

Fight against cultural discrimination: Worked Example

Evidence model for Fight against cultural discrimination: Teach a real example clearly.

1. Name the place, group, object, source, skill, or issue.
2. Give two facts or observations from the lesson.
3. Explain why the example matters in Rwanda.
4. Add one responsible action, improvement, or reflection.
5. Check that your response uses the exact vocabulary from General Studies and Communication Skills.

Fight against cultural discrimination: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words and study moves before you practise Fight against cultural discrimination. Good vocabulary helps you read the question, choose the right method, and explain your answer clearly.

Key words:

- Fight against cultural discrimination
- Fight
- against
- cultural
- discrimination
- idea
- skill
- example

Study skill:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Say each word in your own words.
3. Give one example from Rwanda.
4. Use each word in a correct sentence, calculation step, diagram label, or oral answer.
5. Ask a partner to check whether your example matches the topic.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about Fight against cultural discrimination without a clear example, method, or evidence.

Fight against cultural discrimination: Guided Activity

Work with a partner or small group.

1. Read the inquiry question again.
2. Choose one real situation linked to a Rwanda school, home, or community example for Fight against cultural discrimination.
3. Decide what evidence, method, vocabulary, tool, text, map, diagram, movement, or example is needed.
4. Complete the task together and explain each step aloud.
5. Compare your answer with another group.
6. Improve one part after feedback.

Group role check: one learner reads the task, one records ideas, one checks vocabulary or working, and one reports the answer.

Fight against cultural discrimination: Practice And Correction

Practice for Fight against cultural discrimination:

1. Use a Rwanda case study for Fight against cultural discrimination: identify and avoid any form of cultural discrimination. Name the issue, stakeholders, evidence, responsible action, and reflection.

Correction check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Reflection: What was clear? What needs more practice? What question will you ask your teacher or study partner?

Home link: Ask someone at home for one safe example related to fight against cultural discrimination and write two useful sentences about it.

Fight against cultural discrimination: Challenge And Remediation

Use this page after practice.

If you need support:

1. Re-read the success criteria.
2. Copy the worked example steps as headings.
3. Replace the model details with details from Fight against cultural discrimination.
4. Ask one clear question about the step that is confusing.

If you are ready for a challenge:

1. Create a new task from school, home, community, environment, technology, sport, art, market, or fieldwork.
2. Solve or answer it using correct vocabulary.
3. Explain why your answer is reasonable.
4. Write one extension question for a classmate.

Check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Fight against cultural discrimination: Outcome Check

Show that you can identify and avoid any form of cultural discrimination.

Before answering, reread the topic title and choose the exact vocabulary, method, evidence, tool, diagram, or example that fits this outcome.

1. State the main idea in one clear sentence.
2. Give one example, method, source, observation, or piece of evidence from this topic.
3. Complete a short task that applies the idea.
4. Check your answer against the success criteria.
5. Write one correction or next step.

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Gender-Based Violence and Child Abuse: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: Gender-Based Violence and Child Abuse

Country link: a Rwanda school, home, or community example for Gender-Based Violence and Child Abuse.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- protect the individual and stand against GBV and child abuse

Inquiry questions:

- How can gender-based violence and child abuse help you solve a real problem in General Studies and Communication Skills?

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Gender-Based Violence and Child Abuse: Learn

Gender-Based Violence and Child Abuse becomes easier when you connect the idea to a real situation, name the important vocabulary, and practise one step at a time.

Learning routine:

1. Look at a real situation in Rwanda.
2. Name the exact idea or skill.
3. Explain it in simple words.
4. Work through one model example.
5. Try a similar task independently.
6. Correct your answer using the success criteria.

Key words:

- Gender-Based Violence and Child Abuse
- Gender-Based
- Violence
- Child
- Abuse
- idea
- skill
- example

Gender-Based Violence and Child Abuse: Worked Example

Evidence model for Gender-Based Violence and Child Abuse: Teach a real example clearly.

1. Name the place, group, object, source, skill, or issue.
2. Give two facts or observations from the lesson.
3. Explain why the example matters in Rwanda.
4. Add one responsible action, improvement, or reflection.
5. Check that your response uses the exact vocabulary from General Studies and Communication Skills.

Gender-Based Violence and Child Abuse: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words and study moves before you practise Gender-Based Violence and Child Abuse. Good vocabulary helps you read the question, choose the right method, and explain your answer clearly.

Key words:

- Gender-Based Violence and Child Abuse
- Gender-Based
- Violence
- Child
- Abuse
- idea
- skill
- example

Study skill:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Say each word in your own words.
3. Give one example from Rwanda.
4. Use each word in a correct sentence, calculation step, diagram label, or oral answer.
5. Ask a partner to check whether your example matches the topic.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about Gender-Based Violence and Child Abuse without a clear example, method, or evidence.

Gender-Based Violence and Child Abuse: Guided Activity

Work with a partner or small group.

1. Read the inquiry question again.
2. Choose one real situation linked to a Rwanda school, home, or community example for Gender-Based Violence and Child Abuse.
3. Decide what evidence, method, vocabulary, tool, text, map, diagram, movement, or example is needed.
4. Complete the task together and explain each step aloud.
5. Compare your answer with another group.
6. Improve one part after feedback.

Group role check: one learner reads the task, one records ideas, one checks vocabulary or working, and one reports the answer.

Gender-Based Violence and Child Abuse: Practice And Correction

Practice for Gender-Based Violence and Child Abuse:

1. Use a Rwanda case study for Gender-Based Violence and Child Abuse: protect the individual and stand against GBV and child abuse. Name the issue, stakeholders, evidence, responsible action, and reflection.

Correction check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Reflection: What was clear? What needs more practice? What question will you ask your teacher or study partner?

Home link: Ask someone at home for one safe example related to gender-based violence and child abuse and write two useful sentences about it.

Gender-Based Violence and Child Abuse: Challenge And Remediation

Use this page after practice.

If you need support:

1. Re-read the success criteria.
2. Copy the worked example steps as headings.
3. Replace the model details with details from Gender-Based Violence and Child Abuse.
4. Ask one clear question about the step that is confusing.

If you are ready for a challenge:

1. Create a new task from school, home, community, environment, technology, sport, art, market, or fieldwork.
2. Solve or answer it using correct vocabulary.
3. Explain why your answer is reasonable.
4. Write one extension question for a classmate.

Check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Gender-Based Violence and Child Abuse: Outcome Check

Show that you can protect the individual and stand against GBV and child abuse.

Before answering, reread the topic title and choose the exact vocabulary, method, evidence, tool, diagram, or example that fits this outcome.

1. State the main idea in one clear sentence.
2. Give one example, method, source, observation, or piece of evidence from this topic.
3. Complete a short task that applies the idea.
4. Check your answer against the success criteria.
5. Write one correction or next step.

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Forms (oral and written) and Genres of Literature: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: Forms (oral and written) and Genres of Literature

Country link: a Rwanda school, home, or community example for Forms (oral and written) and Genres of Literature.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- read and analyse the forms (oral and written) and genres of literature

Inquiry questions:

- How can forms (oral and written) and genres of literature help you solve a real problem in General Studies and Communication Skills?

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Forms (oral and written) and Genres of Literature: Learn

Forms (oral and written) and Genres of Literature becomes easier when you connect the idea to a real situation, name the important vocabulary, and practise one step at a time.

Learning routine:

1. Look at a real situation in Rwanda.
2. Name the exact idea or skill.
3. Explain it in simple words.
4. Work through one model example.
5. Try a similar task independently.
6. Correct your answer using the success criteria.

Key words:

- Forms (oral and written) and Genres of Literature
- Forms
- oral
- written
- Genres

Forms (oral and written) and Genres of Literature: Worked Example

Evidence model for Forms (oral and written) and Genres of Literature: Teach a real example clearly.

1. Name the place, group, object, source, skill, or issue.
2. Give two facts or observations from the lesson.
3. Explain why the example matters in Rwanda.
4. Add one responsible action, improvement, or reflection.
5. Check that your response uses the exact vocabulary from General Studies and Communication Skills.

Forms (oral and written) and Genres of Literature: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words and study moves before you practise Forms (oral and written) and Genres of Literature. Good vocabulary helps you read the question, choose the right method, and explain your answer clearly.

Key words:

- Forms (oral and written) and Genres of Literature
- Forms
- oral
- written
- Genres
- Literature
- idea
- skill

Study skill:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Say each word in your own words.
3. Give one example from Rwanda.
4. Use each word in a correct sentence, calculation step, diagram label, or oral answer.
5. Ask a partner to check whether your example matches the topic.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about Forms (oral and written) and Genres of Literature without a clear example, method, or evidence.

Forms (oral and written) and Genres of Literature: Guided Activity

Work with a partner or small group.

1. Read the inquiry question again.
2. Choose one real situation linked to a Rwanda school, home, or community example for Forms (oral and written) and Genres of Literature.
3. Decide what evidence, method, vocabulary, tool, text, map, diagram, movement, or example is needed.
4. Complete the task together and explain each step aloud.
5. Compare your answer with another group.
6. Improve one part after feedback.

Group role check: one learner reads the task, one records ideas, one checks vocabulary or working, and one reports the answer.

Forms (oral and written) and Genres of Literature: Practice And Correction

Practice for Forms (oral and written) and Genres of Literature:

1. Use a Rwanda case study for Forms (oral and written) and Genres of Literature: read and analyse the forms (oral and written) and genres of literature. Name the issue, stakeholders, evidence, responsible action, and reflection.

Correction check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Reflection: What was clear? What needs more practice? What question will you ask your teacher or study partner?

Home link: Ask someone at home for one safe example related to forms (oral and written) and genres of literature and write two useful sentences about it.

Forms (oral and written) and Genres of Literature: Challenge And Remediation

Use this page after practice.

If you need support:

1. Re-read the success criteria.
2. Copy the worked example steps as headings.
3. Replace the model details with details from Forms (oral and written) and Genres of Literature.
4. Ask one clear question about the step that is confusing.

If you are ready for a challenge:

1. Create a new task from school, home, community, environment, technology, sport, art, market, or fieldwork.
2. Solve or answer it using correct vocabulary.
3. Explain why your answer is reasonable.
4. Write one extension question for a classmate.

Check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Forms (oral and written) and Genres of Literature: Outcome Check

Show that you can read and analyse the forms (oral and written) and genres of literature.

Before answering, reread the topic title and choose the exact vocabulary, method, evidence, tool, diagram, or example that fits this outcome.

1. State the main idea in one clear sentence.
2. Give one example, method, source, observation, or piece of evidence from this topic.
3. Complete a short task that applies the idea.
4. Check your answer against the success criteria.
5. Write one correction or next step.

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Preservation of National Heritage and Culture through the Arts: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: Preservation of National Heritage and Culture through the Arts

Country link: a Rwanda school, home, or community example for Preservation of National Heritage and Culture through the Arts.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- appreciate national heritage and culture preservation in the arts

Inquiry questions:

- How can preservation of national heritage and culture through the arts help you solve a real problem in General Studies and Communication Skills?

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Preservation of National Heritage and Culture through the Arts: Learn

Preservation of National Heritage and Culture through the Arts becomes easier when you connect the idea to a real situation, name the important vocabulary, and practise one step at a time.

Learning routine:

1. Look at a real situation in Rwanda.
2. Name the exact idea or skill.
3. Explain it in simple words.
4. Work through one model example.
5. Try a similar task independently.
6. Correct your answer using the success criteria.

Key words:

- Preservation of National Heritage and Culture through the Arts
- Preservation
- National
- Heritage
- Culture
- through
- Arts
- idea

Preservation of National Heritage and Culture through the Arts: Worked Example

Evidence model for Preservation of National Heritage and Culture through the Arts: Teach a real example clearly.

1. Name the place, group, object, source, skill, or issue.
2. Give two facts or observations from the lesson.
3. Explain why the example matters in Rwanda.
4. Add one responsible action, improvement, or reflection.
5. Check that your response uses the exact vocabulary from General Studies and Communication Skills.

Preservation of National Heritage and Culture through the Arts: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words and study moves before you practise Preservation of National Heritage and Culture through the Arts. Good vocabulary helps you read the question, choose the right method, and explain your answer clearly.

Key words:

- Preservation of National Heritage and Culture through the Arts
- Preservation
- National
- Heritage
- Culture
- through
- Arts
- idea

Study skill:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Say each word in your own words.
3. Give one example from Rwanda.
4. Use each word in a correct sentence, calculation step, diagram label, or oral answer.
5. Ask a partner to check whether your example matches the topic.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about Preservation of National Heritage and Culture through the Arts without a clear example, method, or evidence.

Preservation of National Heritage and Culture through the Arts: Guided Activity

Work with a partner or small group.

1. Read the inquiry question again.
2. Choose one real situation linked to a Rwanda school, home, or community example for Preservation of National Heritage and Culture through the Arts.
3. Decide what evidence, method, vocabulary, tool, text, map, diagram, movement, or example is needed.
4. Complete the task together and explain each step aloud.
5. Compare your answer with another group.
6. Improve one part after feedback.

Group role check: one learner reads the task, one records ideas, one checks vocabulary or working, and one reports the answer.

Preservation of National Heritage and Culture through the Arts: Practice And Correction

Practice for Preservation of National Heritage and Culture through the Arts:

1. Use a Rwanda case study for Preservation of National Heritage and Culture through the Arts: appreciate national heritage and culture preservation in the arts. Name the issue, stakeholders, evidence, responsible action, and reflection.

Correction check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Reflection: What was clear? What needs more practice? What question will you ask your teacher or study partner?

Home link: Ask someone at home for one safe example related to preservation of national heritage and culture through the arts and write two useful sentences about it.

Preservation of National Heritage and Culture through the Arts: Challenge And Remediation

Use this page after practice.

If you need support:

1. Re-read the success criteria.
2. Copy the worked example steps as headings.
3. Replace the model details with details from Preservation of National Heritage and Culture through the Arts.
4. Ask one clear question about the step that is confusing.

If you are ready for a challenge:

1. Create a new task from school, home, community, environment, technology, sport, art, market, or fieldwork.
2. Solve or answer it using correct vocabulary.
3. Explain why your answer is reasonable.
4. Write one extension question for a classmate.

Check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Preservation of National Heritage and Culture through the Arts: Outcome Check

Show that you can appreciate national heritage and culture preservation in the arts.

Before answering, reread the topic title and choose the exact vocabulary, method, evidence, tool, diagram, or example that fits this outcome.

1. State the main idea in one clear sentence.
2. Give one example, method, source, observation, or piece of evidence from this topic.
3. Complete a short task that applies the idea.
4. Check your answer against the success criteria.
5. Write one correction or next step.

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Nutrition: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: Nutrition

Country link: a Rwanda school, home, or community example for Nutrition.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- propose and personally implement good practices of diet and hygiene
 - show evidence of maturity in analysing behaviour related issues as well as critical thinking for decision making and personal responsibility
 - appreciate the power of communication with special emphasis on speech and its impact on international relations and cooperation
 - make responsible decisions about economic activities that do not impact negatively on sustainable development while respecting financial ethics
 - think, apply and create multiple thinking strategies to examine and address real world issues
 - participate in activities which help maintain and develop society economically, politically, environmentally and culturally.
- 63 5.4.2. GS&CS Units for Senior six

Inquiry questions:

- How can nutrition help you solve a real problem in General Studies and Communication Skills?

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Nutrition: Learn

Nutrition becomes easier when you connect the idea to a real situation, name the important vocabulary, and practise one step at a time.

Learning routine:

1. Look at a real situation in Rwanda.
2. Name the exact idea or skill.
3. Explain it in simple words.
4. Work through one model example.
5. Try a similar task independently.
6. Correct your answer using the success criteria.

Key words:

- Nutrition
- idea
- skill
- example
- practice
- correction

Nutrition: Worked Example

Evidence model for Nutrition: Teach a real example clearly.

1. Name the place, group, object, source, skill, or issue.
2. Give two facts or observations from the lesson.
3. Explain why the example matters in Rwanda.
4. Add one responsible action, improvement, or reflection.
5. Check that your response uses the exact vocabulary from General Studies and Communication Skills.

Nutrition: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words and study moves before you practise Nutrition. Good vocabulary helps you read the question, choose the right method, and explain your answer clearly.

Key words:

- Nutrition
- idea
- skill
- example
- practice
- correction

Study skill:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Say each word in your own words.
3. Give one example from Rwanda.
4. Use each word in a correct sentence, calculation step, diagram label, or oral answer.
5. Ask a partner to check whether your example matches the topic.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about Nutrition without a clear example, method, or evidence.

Nutrition: Guided Activity

Work with a partner or small group.

1. Read the inquiry question again.
2. Choose one real situation linked to a Rwanda school, home, or community example for Nutrition.
3. Decide what evidence, method, vocabulary, tool, text, map, diagram, movement, or example is needed.
4. Complete the task together and explain each step aloud.
5. Compare your answer with another group.
6. Improve one part after feedback.

Group role check: one learner reads the task, one records ideas, one checks vocabulary or working, and one reports the answer.

Nutrition: Practice And Correction

Practice for Nutrition:

1. Use a Rwanda case study for Nutrition: propose and personally implement good practices of diet and hygiene. Name the issue, stakeholders, evidence, responsible action, and reflection.
2. Use a Rwanda case study for Nutrition: show evidence of maturity in analysing behaviour related issues as well as critical thinking for decision making and personal responsibility. Name the issue, stakeholders, evidence, responsible action, and reflection.
3. Use a Rwanda case study for Nutrition: appreciate the power of communication with special emphasis on speech and its impact on international relations and cooperation. Name the issue, stakeholders, evidence, responsible action, and reflection.
4. Use a Rwanda case study for Nutrition: make responsible decisions about economic activities that do not impact negatively on sustainable development while respecting financial ethics. Name the issue, stakeholders, evidence, responsible action, and reflection.

Correction check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Reflection: What was clear? What needs more practice? What question will you ask your teacher or study partner?

Home link: Ask someone at home for one safe example related to nutrition and write two useful sentences about it.

Nutrition: Challenge And Remediation

Use this page after practice.

If you need support:

1. Re-read the success criteria.
2. Copy the worked example steps as headings.
3. Replace the model details with details from Nutrition.
4. Ask one clear question about the step that is confusing.

If you are ready for a challenge:

1. Create a new task from school, home, community, environment, technology, sport, art, market, or fieldwork.
2. Solve or answer it using correct vocabulary.
3. Explain why your answer is reasonable.
4. Write one extension question for a classmate.

Check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Nutrition: Outcome Check

Show that you can propose and personally implement good practices of diet and hygiene.

Before answering, reread the topic title and choose the exact vocabulary, method, evidence, tool, diagram, or example that fits this outcome.

1. State the main idea in one clear sentence.
2. Give one example, method, source, observation, or piece of evidence from this topic.
3. Complete a short task that applies the idea.
4. Check your answer against the success criteria.
5. Write one correction or next step.

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Nutrition: Outcome Check

Show that you can show evidence of maturity in analysing behaviour related issues as well as critical thinking for decision making and personal responsibility.

Before answering, reread the topic title and choose the exact vocabulary, method, evidence, tool, diagram, or example that fits this outcome.

1. State the main idea in one clear sentence.
2. Give one example, method, source, observation, or piece of evidence from this topic.
3. Complete a short task that applies the idea.
4. Check your answer against the success criteria.
5. Write one correction or next step.

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Conflict Management: Review Clinic 1

Use this review clinic to strengthen General Studies and Communication Skills without copying earlier answers.

1. Choose one idea from Conflict Management that was difficult.
2. Explain the idea in your own words.
3. Make one new example from Rwanda.
4. Create one question that checks knowledge.
5. Create one question that checks skill or application.
6. Answer both questions and correct your work.

Challenge: Turn the idea into a drawing, table, map, dialogue, model, demonstration, or worked solution.

Leadership, Governance and Management: Review Clinic 2

Use this review clinic to strengthen General Studies and Communication Skills without copying earlier answers.

1. Choose one idea from Leadership, Governance and Management that was difficult.
2. Explain the idea in your own words.
3. Make one new example from Rwanda.
4. Create one question that checks knowledge.
5. Create one question that checks skill or application.
6. Answer both questions and correct your work.

Challenge: Turn the idea into a drawing, table, map, dialogue, model, demonstration, or worked solution.

International Relations: Review Clinic 3

Use this review clinic to strengthen General Studies and Communication Skills without copying earlier answers.

1. Choose one idea from International Relations that was difficult.
2. Explain the idea in your own words.
3. Make one new example from Rwanda.
4. Create one question that checks knowledge.
5. Create one question that checks skill or application.
6. Answer both questions and correct your work.

Challenge: Turn the idea into a drawing, table, map, dialogue, model, demonstration, or worked solution.

Multinational Corporations: Review Clinic 4

Use this review clinic to strengthen General Studies and Communication Skills without copying earlier answers.

1. Choose one idea from Multinational Corporations that was difficult.
2. Explain the idea in your own words.
3. Make one new example from Rwanda.
4. Create one question that checks knowledge.
5. Create one question that checks skill or application.
6. Answer both questions and correct your work.

Challenge: Turn the idea into a drawing, table, map, dialogue, model, demonstration, or worked solution.

Glossary

Use this glossary to revise important words in General Studies and Communication Skills.

- Conflict Management: Explain this term using an example from the book, your school, or your community.
- Leadership, Governance and Management: Explain this term using an example from the book, your school, or your community.
- International Relations: Explain this term using an example from the book, your school, or your community.
- Multinational Corporations: Explain this term using an example from the book, your school, or your community.
- Money and Finance: Explain this term using an example from the book, your school, or your community.
- Tourism, & Development: Explain this term using an example from the book, your school, or your community.
- Environment and Sustainable Development: Explain this term using an example from the book, your school, or your community.
- Importance of ICT in development: Explain this term using an example from the book, your school, or your community.
- Writing official documents and mass media: Explain this term using an example from the book, your school, or your community.
- Fight against cultural discrimination: Explain this term using an example from the book, your school, or your community.
- Gender-Based Violence and Child Abuse: Explain this term using an example from the book, your school, or your community.
- Forms (oral and written) and Genres of Literature: Explain this term using an example from the book, your school, or your community.
- Preservation of National Heritage and Culture through the Arts: Explain this term using an example from the book, your school, or your community.
- Nutrition: Explain this term using an example from the book, your school, or your community.

Add five more words from your lessons and write your own meanings.

Answer And Teacher Notes

A strong General Studies and Communication Skills answer responds to the exact task, uses correct vocabulary, gives a clear example or evidence, and shows correction after feedback. For practical work, name materials, safety, process, quality checks, peer feedback, and one improvement made after review.

Final Project

Create a final project for General Studies and Communication Skills that shows what you can now do independently.

Your project must include:

1. A clear title.
2. A real-life problem, question, text, performance, investigation, design, or worked task.
3. Evidence from at least three lessons in this book.
4. A drawing, table, map, chart, model, dialogue, paragraph, performance plan, practical product, or worked solution.
5. A correction note showing one improvement after feedback.
6. A short reflection explaining what you learned, what was difficult, and what you will practise next.

Presentation check: keep the work neat, label important parts, use correct vocabulary, and be ready to explain your choices to a classmate or teacher.