

KITABU QUEST

S5

HISTORY

Cover scene

students studying timelines and historical sources with a grey crowned crane mascot

● Clear lessons

● Worked examples

● Fun activities

● Real-life problems

GRADE

5

Title Page

KITABU QUEST S5 History

Rwanda REB-CBC learner book

Mascot: grey crowned crane

This KITABU QUEST book turns the curriculum into short lessons, worked examples, guided activities, practice, review, and home links for Rwanda learners.

How To Use This Book

This book helps S5 learners study History one teachable topic at a time.

1. Start with the inquiry question and say what you already know.
2. Read the Learn section slowly and mark new words.
3. Try the worked example before reading the full solution.
4. Complete the activity and practice tasks.
5. Correct your answer using the success criteria.
6. Ask for support when your answer is still unclear.

Subject method: Use timelines, sources, evidence, and careful explanation of cause, change, and consequence.

Learning Skills In This Book

Each topic builds knowledge, skill, values, communication, collaboration, critical thinking, creativity, digital awareness, and self-confidence.

Study actively: speak answers aloud, draw when useful, show your working, cite evidence, use local examples, and correct mistakes after feedback.

A strong answer is specific. It names the idea, gives evidence or method, applies it to the task, and checks whether it answers the question.

Table Of Contents

Use this table to move through the book one topic at a time. Each topic has a lesson opener, clear teaching, a model or example, guided work, practice, and checks for understanding.

1. Origin of Islam and its impact in West Africa No. of peri - ods
2. Major European events from 1836 to
3. European domination and the exploitation of Africa in the 19th Century
4. Impact of colonial rule on African societies
5. The First and Second Republics of Rwanda
6. Genocide ideology and denial in Rwanda and abroad
7. National duties and obligations
8. National and international judicial systems and instruments
9. Dignity and self-reliance

As you finish each topic, return to the success criteria and correct one answer before moving on.

Origin of Islam and its impact in West Africa No. of peri - ods: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: Origin of Islam and its impact in West Africa No. of peri - ods

Country link: a Rwanda map, community, citizenship, culture, environment, or heritage example for Origin of Islam and its impact in West Africa No. of peri - ods.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- the explain the origin of Islam, its role in the expansion of West African empires and its impact

Inquiry questions:

- How can origin of islam and its impact in west africa no. of peri - ods help you solve a real problem in History?

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Origin of Islam and its impact in West Africa No. of peri - ods: Learn

Origin of Islam and its impact in West Africa No. of peri - ods becomes easier when you connect the idea to a real situation, name the important vocabulary, and practise one step at a time.

Learning routine:

1. Look at a real situation in Rwanda.
2. Name the exact idea or skill.
3. Explain it in simple words.
4. Work through one model example.
5. Try a similar task independently.
6. Correct your answer using the success criteria.

Key words:

- Origin of Islam and its impact in West Africa No. of peri - ods
- Origin
- Islam
- impact
- West
- Africa
- peri
- idea

Origin of Islam and its impact in West Africa No. of peri - ods: Worked Example

Evidence model for Origin of Islam and its impact in West Africa No. of peri - ods: Teach a real example clearly.

1. Name the place, group, object, source, skill, or issue.
2. Give two facts or observations from the lesson.
3. Explain why the example matters in Rwanda.
4. Add one responsible action, improvement, or reflection.
5. Check that your response uses the exact vocabulary from History.

Origin of Islam and its impact in West Africa No. of peri - ods: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words and study moves before you practise Origin of Islam and its impact in West Africa No. of peri - ods. Good vocabulary helps you read the question, choose the right method, and explain your answer clearly.

Key words:

- Origin of Islam and its impact in West Africa No. of peri - ods
- Origin
- Islam
- impact
- West
- Africa
- peri
- idea

Study skill:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Say each word in your own words.
3. Give one example from Rwanda.
4. Use each word in a correct sentence, calculation step, diagram label, or oral answer.
5. Ask a partner to check whether your example matches the topic.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about Origin of Islam and its impact in West Africa No. of peri - ods without a clear example, method, or evidence.

Origin of Islam and its impact in West Africa No. of peri - ods: Guided Activity

Work with a partner or small group.

1. Read the inquiry question again.
2. Choose one real situation linked to a Rwanda map, community, citizenship, culture, environment, or heritage example for Origin of Islam and its impact in West Africa No. of peri - ods.
3. Decide what evidence, method, vocabulary, tool, text, map, diagram, movement, or example is needed.
4. Complete the task together and explain each step aloud.
5. Compare your answer with another group.
6. Improve one part after feedback.

Group role check: one learner reads the task, one records ideas, one checks vocabulary or working, and one reports the answer.

Origin of Islam and its impact in West Africa No. of peri - ods: Practice And Correction

Practice for Origin of Islam and its impact in West Africa No. of peri - ods:

1. Use an example from your community or country to explain: the explain the origin of Islam, its role in the expansion of West African empires and its impact.

Correction check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Reflection: What was clear? What needs more practice? What question will you ask your teacher or study partner?

Home link: Ask someone at home for one safe example related to origin of islam and its impact in west africa no. of peri - ods and write two useful sentences about it.

Origin of Islam and its impact in West Africa No. of peri - ods: Challenge And Remediation

Use this page after practice.

If you need support:

1. Re-read the success criteria.
2. Copy the worked example steps as headings.
3. Replace the model details with details from Origin of Islam and its impact in West Africa No. of peri - ods.
4. Ask one clear question about the step that is confusing.

If you are ready for a challenge:

1. Create a new task from school, home, community, environment, technology, sport, art, market, or fieldwork.
2. Solve or answer it using correct vocabulary.
3. Explain why your answer is reasonable.
4. Write one extension question for a classmate.

Check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Origin of Islam and its impact in West Africa No. of periods: Outcome Check

Show that you can explain the origin of Islam, its role in the expansion of West African empires and its impact.

Before answering, reread the topic title and choose the exact vocabulary, method, evidence, tool, diagram, or example that fits this outcome.

1. State the main idea in one clear sentence.
2. Give one example, method, source, observation, or piece of evidence from this topic.
3. Complete a short task that applies the idea.
4. Check your answer against the success criteria.
5. Write one correction or next step.

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Major European events from 1836 to: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: Major European events from 1836 to

Country link: a Rwanda map, community, citizenship, culture, environment, or heritage example for Major European events from 1836 to.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- the evaluate the major events that took place in Europe from 1836 to 1878; their causes, course and the effects

Inquiry questions:

- How can major European events from 1836 to help you solve a real problem in History?

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Major European events from 1836 to: Learn

Major European events from 1836 to becomes easier when you connect the idea to a real situation, name the important vocabulary, and practise one step at a time.

Learning routine:

1. Look at a real situation in Rwanda.
2. Name the exact idea or skill.
3. Explain it in simple words.
4. Work through one model example.
5. Try a similar task independently.
6. Correct your answer using the success criteria.

Key words:

- Major European events from 1836 to
- Major
- European
- events
- from
- 1836
- idea
- skill

Major European events from 1836 to: Worked Example

Evidence model for Major European events from 1836 to: Teach a real example clearly.

1. Name the place, group, object, source, skill, or issue.
2. Give two facts or observations from the lesson.
3. Explain why the example matters in Rwanda.
4. Add one responsible action, improvement, or reflection.
5. Check that your response uses the exact vocabulary from History.

Major European events from 1836 to: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words and study moves before you practise Major European events from 1836 to. Good vocabulary helps you read the question, choose the right method, and explain your answer clearly.

Key words:

- Major European events from 1836 to
- Major
- European
- events
- from
- 1836
- idea
- skill

Study skill:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Say each word in your own words.
3. Give one example from Rwanda.
4. Use each word in a correct sentence, calculation step, diagram label, or oral answer.
5. Ask a partner to check whether your example matches the topic.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about Major European events from 1836 to without a clear example, method, or evidence.

Major European events from 1836 to: Guided Activity

Work with a partner or small group.

1. Read the inquiry question again.
2. Choose one real situation linked to a Rwanda map, community, citizenship, culture, environment, or heritage example for Major European events from 1836 to.
3. Decide what evidence, method, vocabulary, tool, text, map, diagram, movement, or example is needed.
4. Complete the task together and explain each step aloud.
5. Compare your answer with another group.
6. Improve one part after feedback.

Group role check: one learner reads the task, one records ideas, one checks vocabulary or working, and one reports the answer.

Major European events from 1836 to: Practice And Correction

Practice for Major European events from 1836 to:

1. Use an example from your community or country to explain: the evaluate the major events that took place in Europe from 1836 to 1878; their causes, course and the effects.

Correction check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Reflection: What was clear? What needs more practice? What question will you ask your teacher or study partner?

Home link: Ask someone at home for one safe example related to major european events from 1836 to and write two useful sentences about it.

Major European events from 1836 to: Challenge And Remediation

Use this page after practice.

If you need support:

1. Re-read the success criteria.
2. Copy the worked example steps as headings.
3. Replace the model details with details from Major European events from 1836 to.
4. Ask one clear question about the step that is confusing.

If you are ready for a challenge:

1. Create a new task from school, home, community, environment, technology, sport, art, market, or fieldwork.
2. Solve or answer it using correct vocabulary.
3. Explain why your answer is reasonable.
4. Write one extension question for a classmate.

Check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Major European events from 1836 to: Outcome Check

Show that you can evaluate the major events that took place in Europe from 1836 to 1878; their causes, course and the effects.

Before answering, reread the topic title and choose the exact vocabulary, method, evidence, tool, diagram, or example that fits this outcome.

1. State the main idea in one clear sentence.
2. Give one example, method, source, observation, or piece of evidence from this topic.
3. Complete a short task that applies the idea.
4. Check your answer against the success criteria.
5. Write one correction or next step.

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

European domination and the exploitation of Africa in the 19th Century: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: European domination and the exploitation of Africa in the 19th Century

Country link: a Rwanda map, community, citizenship, culture, environment, or heritage example for European domination and the exploitation of Africa in the 19th Century.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- the describe the European domination, exploitation in Africa and its consequences in the 19th Century

Inquiry questions:

- How can European domination and the exploitation of Africa in the 19th century help you solve a real problem in History?

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

European domination and the exploitation of Africa in the19th Century: Learn

European domination and the exploitation of Africa in the19th Century becomes easier when you connect the idea to a real situation, name the important vocabulary, and practise one step at a time.

Learning routine:

1. Look at a real situation in Rwanda.
2. Name the exact idea or skill.
3. Explain it in simple words.
4. Work through one model example.
5. Try a similar task independently.
6. Correct your answer using the success criteria.

Key words:

- European domination and the exploitation of Africa in the19th Century
- European
- domination
- exploitation
- Africa
- the19th
- Century
- idea

European domination and the exploitation of Africa in the19th Century: Worked Example

Evidence model for European domination and the exploitation of Africa in the19th Century: Teach a real example clearly.

1. Name the place, group, object, source, skill, or issue.
2. Give two facts or observations from the lesson.
3. Explain why the example matters in Rwanda.
4. Add one responsible action, improvement, or reflection.
5. Check that your response uses the exact vocabulary from History.

European domination and the exploitation of Africa in the19th Century: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words and study moves before you practise European domination and the exploitation of Africa in the19th Century. Good vocabulary helps you read the question, choose the right method, and explain your answer clearly.

Key words:

- European domination and the exploitation of Africa in the19th Century
- European
- domination
- exploitation
- Africa
- the19th

Study skill:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Say each word in your own words.
3. Give one example from Rwanda.
4. Use each word in a correct sentence, calculation step, diagram label, or oral answer.
5. Ask a partner to check whether your example matches the topic.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about European domination and the exploitation of Africa in the 19th Century without a clear example, method, or evidence.

European domination and the exploitation of Africa in the 19th Century: Guided Activity

Work with a partner or small group.

1. Read the inquiry question again.
2. Choose one real situation linked to a Rwanda map, community, citizenship, culture, environment, or heritage example for European domination and the exploitation of Africa in the 19th Century.
3. Decide what evidence, method, vocabulary, tool, text, map, diagram, movement, or example is needed.
4. Complete the task together and explain each step aloud.
5. Compare your answer with another group.
6. Improve one part after feedback.

Group role check: one learner reads the task, one records ideas, one checks vocabulary or working, and one reports the answer.

European domination and the exploitation of Africa in the 19th Century: Practice And Correction

Practice for European domination and the exploitation of Africa in the 19th Century:

1. Use an example from your community or country to explain: the describe the European domination, exploitation in Africa and its consequences in the 19th Century.

Correction check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Reflection: What was clear? What needs more practice? What question will you ask your teacher or study partner?

Home link: Ask someone at home for one safe example related to European domination and the exploitation of Africa in the 19th century and write two useful sentences about it.

European domination and the exploitation of Africa in the 19th Century: Challenge And Remediation

Use this page after practice.

If you need support:

1. Re-read the success criteria.
2. Copy the worked example steps as headings.
3. Replace the model details with details from European domination and the exploitation of Africa in the 19th Century.
4. Ask one clear question about the step that is confusing.

If you are ready for a challenge:

1. Create a new task from school, home, community, environment, technology, sport, art, market, or fieldwork.
2. Solve or answer it using correct vocabulary.
3. Explain why your answer is reasonable.
4. Write one extension question for a classmate.

Check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

European domination and the exploitation of Africa in the 19th Century: Outcome Check

Show that you can describe the European domination, exploitation in Africa and its consequences in the 19th Century.

Before answering, reread the topic title and choose the exact vocabulary, method, evidence, tool, diagram, or example that fits this outcome.

1. State the main idea in one clear sentence.
2. Give one example, method, source, observation, or piece of evidence from this topic.
3. Complete a short task that applies the idea.
4. Check your answer against the success criteria.
5. Write one correction or next step.

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Impact of colonial rule on African societies: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: Impact of colonial rule on African societies

Country link: a Rwanda map, community, citizenship, culture, environment, or heritage example for Impact of colonial rule on African societies.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- the assess the political, economic and social transformations brought by the colonial rule in Africa

Inquiry questions:

- How can impact of colonial rule on african societies help you solve a real problem in History?

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Impact of colonial rule on African societies: Learn

Impact of colonial rule on African societies becomes easier when you connect the idea to a real situation, name the important vocabulary, and practise one step at a time.

Learning routine:

1. Look at a real situation in Rwanda.
2. Name the exact idea or skill.
3. Explain it in simple words.
4. Work through one model example.
5. Try a similar task independently.
6. Correct your answer using the success criteria.

Key words:

- Impact of colonial rule on African societies
- Impact
- colonial
- rule
- African
- societies
- idea
- skill

Impact of colonial rule on African societies: Worked Example

Evidence model for Impact of colonial rule on African societies: Teach a real example clearly.

1. Name the place, group, object, source, skill, or issue.
2. Give two facts or observations from the lesson.
3. Explain why the example matters in Rwanda.
4. Add one responsible action, improvement, or reflection.
5. Check that your response uses the exact vocabulary from History.

Impact of colonial rule on African societies: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words and study moves before you practise Impact of colonial rule on African societies. Good vocabulary helps you read the question, choose the right method, and explain your answer clearly.

Key words:

- Impact of colonial rule on African societies
- Impact
- colonial
- rule
- African
- societies
- idea
- skill

Study skill:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Say each word in your own words.
3. Give one example from Rwanda.
4. Use each word in a correct sentence, calculation step, diagram label, or oral answer.
5. Ask a partner to check whether your example matches the topic.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about Impact of colonial rule on African societies without a clear example, method, or evidence.

Impact of colonial rule on African societies: Guided Activity

Work with a partner or small group.

1. Read the inquiry question again.
2. Choose one real situation linked to a Rwanda map, community, citizenship, culture, environment, or heritage example for Impact of colonial rule on African societies.
3. Decide what evidence, method, vocabulary, tool, text, map, diagram, movement, or example is needed.
4. Complete the task together and explain each step aloud.
5. Compare your answer with another group.
6. Improve one part after feedback.

Group role check: one learner reads the task, one records ideas, one checks vocabulary or working, and one reports the answer.

Impact of colonial rule on African societies: Practice And Correction

Practice for Impact of colonial rule on African societies:

1. Use an example from your community or country to explain: the assess the political, economic and social transformations brought by the colonial rule in Africa.

Correction check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Reflection: What was clear? What needs more practice? What question will you ask your teacher or study partner?

Home link: Ask someone at home for one safe example related to impact of colonial rule on african societies and write two useful sentences about it.

Impact of colonial rule on African societies: Challenge And Remediation

Use this page after practice.

If you need support:

1. Re-read the success criteria.
2. Copy the worked example steps as headings.
3. Replace the model details with details from Impact of colonial rule on African societies.
4. Ask one clear question about the step that is confusing.

If you are ready for a challenge:

1. Create a new task from school, home, community, environment, technology, sport, art, market, or fieldwork.
2. Solve or answer it using correct vocabulary.
3. Explain why your answer is reasonable.
4. Write one extension question for a classmate.

Check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Impact of colonial rule on African societies: Outcome Check

Show that you can the assess the political, economic and social transformations brought by the colonial rule in Africa.

Before answering, reread the topic title and choose the exact vocabulary, method, evidence, tool, diagram, or example that fits this outcome.

1. State the main idea in one clear sentence.
2. Give one example, method, source, observation, or piece of evidence from this topic.
3. Complete a short task that applies the idea.
4. Check your answer against the success criteria.
5. Write one correction or next step.

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

The First and Second Republics of Rwanda: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: The First and Second Republics of Rwanda

Country link: a Rwanda map, community, citizenship, culture, environment, or heritage example for The First and Second Republics of Rwanda.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- the examine the achievements and the failures of the First and the Second Republics of Rwanda

Inquiry questions:

- How can the first and second republics of rwanda help you solve a real problem in History?

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

The First and Second Republics of Rwanda: Learn

The First and Second Republics of Rwanda becomes easier when you connect the idea to a real situation, name the important vocabulary, and practise one step at a time.

Learning routine:

1. Look at a real situation in Rwanda.
2. Name the exact idea or skill.
3. Explain it in simple words.
4. Work through one model example.
5. Try a similar task independently.
6. Correct your answer using the success criteria.

Key words:

- The First and Second Republics of Rwanda
- First
- Second
- Republics
- Rwanda
- idea
- skill
- example

The First and Second Republics of Rwanda: Worked Example

Evidence model for The First and Second Republics of Rwanda: Teach a real example clearly.

1. Name the place, group, object, source, skill, or issue.
2. Give two facts or observations from the lesson.
3. Explain why the example matters in Rwanda.
4. Add one responsible action, improvement, or reflection.
5. Check that your response uses the exact vocabulary from History.

The First and Second Republics of Rwanda: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words and study moves before you practise The First and Second Republics of Rwanda. Good vocabulary helps you read the question, choose the right method, and explain your answer clearly.

Key words:

- The First and Second Republics of Rwanda
- First
- Second
- Republics
- Rwanda
- idea
- skill
- example

Study skill:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Say each word in your own words.
3. Give one example from Rwanda.
4. Use each word in a correct sentence, calculation step, diagram label, or oral answer.
5. Ask a partner to check whether your example matches the topic.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about The First and Second Republics of Rwanda without a clear example, method, or evidence.

The First and Second Republics of Rwanda: Guided Activity

Work with a partner or small group.

1. Read the inquiry question again.
2. Choose one real situation linked to a Rwanda map, community, citizenship, culture, environment, or heritage example for The First and Second Republics of Rwanda.
3. Decide what evidence, method, vocabulary, tool, text, map, diagram, movement, or example is needed.
4. Complete the task together and explain each step aloud.
5. Compare your answer with another group.
6. Improve one part after feedback.

Group role check: one learner reads the task, one records ideas, one checks vocabulary or working, and one reports the answer.

The First and Second Republics of Rwanda: Practice And Correction

Practice for The First and Second Republics of Rwanda:

1. Use an example from your community or country to explain: the examine the achievements and the failures of the First and the Second Republics of Rwanda.

Correction check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Reflection: What was clear? What needs more practice? What question will you ask your teacher or study partner?

Home link: Ask someone at home for one safe example related to the first and second republics of rwanda and write two useful sentences about it.

The First and Second Republics of Rwanda: Challenge And Remediation

Use this page after practice.

If you need support:

1. Re-read the success criteria.
2. Copy the worked example steps as headings.
3. Replace the model details with details from The First and Second Republics of Rwanda.
4. Ask one clear question about the step that is confusing.

If you are ready for a challenge:

1. Create a new task from school, home, community, environment, technology, sport, art, market, or fieldwork.
2. Solve or answer it using correct vocabulary.
3. Explain why your answer is reasonable.
4. Write one extension question for a classmate.

Check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

The First and Second Republics of Rwanda: Outcome Check

Show that you can examine the achievements and the failures of the First and the Second Republics of Rwanda.

Before answering, reread the topic title and choose the exact vocabulary, method, evidence, tool, diagram, or example that fits this outcome.

1. State the main idea in one clear sentence.
2. Give one example, method, source, observation, or piece of evidence from this topic.
3. Complete a short task that applies the idea.
4. Check your answer against the success criteria.
5. Write one correction or next step.

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Genocide ideology and denial in Rwanda and abroad: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: Genocide ideology and denial in Rwanda and abroad

Country link: a Rwanda map, community, citizenship, culture, environment, or heritage example for Genocide ideology and denial in Rwanda and abroad.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- the analyze crucial stages of 1994 Genocide Against the Tutsi in Rwanda and abroad
- suggest ways of fighting against genocide ideology and the channels denying 1994 Genocide against and ideology. in human Geography. 39 HISTORY SYLLABUS FOR ADVANCED LEVEL S4-S6

Inquiry questions:

- How can genocide ideology and denial in Rwanda and abroad help you solve a real problem in History?

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Genocide ideology and denial in Rwanda and abroad: Learn

Genocide ideology and denial in Rwanda and abroad becomes easier when you connect the idea to a real situation, name the important vocabulary, and practise one step at a time.

Learning routine:

1. Look at a real situation in Rwanda.
2. Name the exact idea or skill.
3. Explain it in simple words.
4. Work through one model example.
5. Try a similar task independently.
6. Correct your answer using the success criteria.

Key words:

- Genocide ideology and denial in Rwanda and abroad
- Genocide
- ideology
- denial
- Rwanda
- abroad
- idea
- skill

Genocide ideology and denial in Rwanda and abroad: Worked Example

Evidence model for Genocide ideology and denial in Rwanda and abroad: Teach a real example clearly.

1. Name the place, group, object, source, skill, or issue.
2. Give two facts or observations from the lesson.
3. Explain why the example matters in Rwanda.
4. Add one responsible action, improvement, or reflection.
5. Check that your response uses the exact vocabulary from History.

Genocide ideology and denial in Rwanda and abroad: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words and study moves before you practise Genocide ideology and denial in Rwanda and abroad. Good vocabulary helps you read the question, choose the right method, and explain your answer clearly.

Key words:

- Genocide ideology and denial in Rwanda and abroad
- Genocide
- ideology
- denial
- Rwanda
- abroad
- idea
- skill

Study skill:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Say each word in your own words.
3. Give one example from Rwanda.
4. Use each word in a correct sentence, calculation step, diagram label, or oral answer.
5. Ask a partner to check whether your example matches the topic.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about Genocide ideology and denial in Rwanda and abroad without a clear example, method, or evidence.

Genocide ideology and denial in Rwanda and abroad: Guided Activity

Work with a partner or small group.

1. Read the inquiry question again.
2. Choose one real situation linked to a Rwanda map, community, citizenship, culture, environment, or heritage example for Genocide ideology and denial in Rwanda and abroad.
3. Decide what evidence, method, vocabulary, tool, text, map, diagram, movement, or example is needed.
4. Complete the task together and explain each step aloud.
5. Compare your answer with another group.
6. Improve one part after feedback.

Group role check: one learner reads the task, one records ideas, one checks vocabulary or working, and one reports the answer.

Genocide ideology and denial in Rwanda and abroad: Practice And Correction

Practice for Genocide ideology and denial in Rwanda and abroad:

1. Use an example from your community or country to explain: the analyze crucial stages of 1994 Genocide Against the Tutsi in Rwanda and abroad.
2. Use an example from your community or country to explain: suggest ways of fighting against genocide ideology and the channels denying 1994 Genocide against and ideology. in human Geography. 39 HISTORY SYLLABUS FOR ADVANCED LEVEL S4-S6.

Correction check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Reflection: What was clear? What needs more practice? What question will you ask your teacher or study partner?

Home link: Ask someone at home for one safe example related to genocide ideology and denial in Rwanda and abroad and write two useful sentences about it.

Genocide ideology and denial in Rwanda and abroad: Challenge And Remediation

Use this page after practice.

If you need support:

1. Re-read the success criteria.
2. Copy the worked example steps as headings.
3. Replace the model details with details from Genocide ideology and denial in Rwanda and abroad.
4. Ask one clear question about the step that is confusing.

If you are ready for a challenge:

1. Create a new task from school, home, community, environment, technology, sport, art, market, or fieldwork.
2. Solve or answer it using correct vocabulary.
3. Explain why your answer is reasonable.
4. Write one extension question for a classmate.

Check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Genocide ideology and denial in Rwanda and abroad: Outcome Check

Show that you can analyze crucial stages of 1994 Genocide Against the Tutsi in Rwanda and abroad.

Before answering, reread the topic title and choose the exact vocabulary, method, evidence, tool, diagram, or example that fits this outcome.

1. State the main idea in one clear sentence.
2. Give one example, method, source, observation, or piece of evidence from this topic.
3. Complete a short task that applies the idea.
4. Check your answer against the success criteria.
5. Write one correction or next step.

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Genocide ideology and denial in Rwanda and abroad: Outcome Check

Show that you can suggest ways of fighting against genocide ideology and the channels denying 1994 Genocide against and ideology. in human Geography. 39 HISTORY SYLLABUS FOR ADVANCED LEVEL S4-S6.

Before answering, reread the topic title and choose the exact vocabulary, method, evidence, tool, diagram, or example that fits this outcome.

1. State the main idea in one clear sentence.
2. Give one example, method, source, observation, or piece of evidence from this topic.
3. Complete a short task that applies the idea.
4. Check your answer against the success criteria.
5. Write one correction or next step.

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

National duties and obligations: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: National duties and obligations

Country link: a Rwanda map, community, citizenship, culture, environment, or heritage example for National duties and obligations.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- the Analyze the national duties and obligations
- balance the contributions and challenges of the national duties and obligations. policing, Imihigo and Umuganda)

Inquiry questions:

- How can national duties and obligations help you solve a real problem in History?

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

National duties and obligations: Learn

National duties and obligations becomes easier when you connect the idea to a real situation, name the important vocabulary, and practise one step at a time.

Learning routine:

1. Look at a real situation in Rwanda.
2. Name the exact idea or skill.
3. Explain it in simple words.
4. Work through one model example.
5. Try a similar task independently.
6. Correct your answer using the success criteria.

Key words:

- National duties and obligations
- National
- duties
- obligations
- idea
- skill
- example
- practice

National duties and obligations: Worked Example

Evidence model for National duties and obligations: Teach a real example clearly.

1. Name the place, group, object, source, skill, or issue.
2. Give two facts or observations from the lesson.
3. Explain why the example matters in Rwanda.
4. Add one responsible action, improvement, or reflection.
5. Check that your response uses the exact vocabulary from History.

National duties and obligations: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words and study moves before you practise National duties and obligations. Good vocabulary helps you read the question, choose the right method, and explain your answer clearly.

Key words:

- National duties and obligations
- National
- duties
- obligations
- idea
- skill
- example
- practice

Study skill:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Say each word in your own words.
3. Give one example from Rwanda.
4. Use each word in a correct sentence, calculation step, diagram label, or oral answer.
5. Ask a partner to check whether your example matches the topic.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about National duties and obligations without a clear example, method, or evidence.

National duties and obligations: Guided Activity

Work with a partner or small group.

1. Read the inquiry question again.
2. Choose one real situation linked to a Rwanda map, community, citizenship, culture, environment, or heritage example for National duties and obligations.
3. Decide what evidence, method, vocabulary, tool, text, map, diagram, movement, or example is needed.
4. Complete the task together and explain each step aloud.
5. Compare your answer with another group.
6. Improve one part after feedback.

Group role check: one learner reads the task, one records ideas, one checks vocabulary or working, and one reports the answer.

National duties and obligations: Practice And Correction

Practice for National duties and obligations:

1. Use an example from your community or country to explain: the Analyze the national duties and obligations.
2. Use an example from your community or country to explain: balance the contributions and challenges of the national duties and obligations. policing, Imihigo and Umuganda).

Correction check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Reflection: What was clear? What needs more practice? What question will you ask your teacher or study partner?

Home link: Ask someone at home for one safe example related to national duties and obligations and write two useful sentences about it.

National duties and obligations: Challenge And Remediation

Use this page after practice.

If you need support:

1. Re-read the success criteria.
2. Copy the worked example steps as headings.
3. Replace the model details with details from National duties and obligations.
4. Ask one clear question about the step that is confusing.

If you are ready for a challenge:

1. Create a new task from school, home, community, environment, technology, sport, art, market, or fieldwork.
2. Solve or answer it using correct vocabulary.
3. Explain why your answer is reasonable.
4. Write one extension question for a classmate.

Check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

National duties and obligations: Outcome Check

Show that you can the Analyze the national duties and obligations.

Before answering, reread the topic title and choose the exact vocabulary, method, evidence, tool, diagram, or example that fits this outcome.

1. State the main idea in one clear sentence.
2. Give one example, method, source, observation, or piece of evidence from this topic.
3. Complete a short task that applies the idea.
4. Check your answer against the success criteria.
5. Write one correction or next step.

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

National duties and obligations: Outcome Check

Show that you can balance the contributions and challenges of the national duties and obligations. (policing, Imihigo and Umuganda).

Before answering, reread the topic title and choose the exact vocabulary, method, evidence, tool, diagram, or example that fits this outcome.

1. State the main idea in one clear sentence.
2. Give one example, method, source, observation, or piece of evidence from this topic.
3. Complete a short task that applies the idea.
4. Check your answer against the success criteria.
5. Write one correction or next step.

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

National and international judicial systems and instruments: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: National and international judicial systems and instruments

Country link: a Rwanda map, community, citizenship, culture, environment, or heritage example for National and international judicial systems and instruments.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- the Analyze the national, international judicial systems and instruments, and how justice has been delayed and denied in the Rwandan society

Inquiry questions:

- How can national and international judicial systems and instruments help you solve a real problem in History?

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

National and international judicial systems and instruments: Learn

National and international judicial systems and instruments becomes easier when you connect the idea to a real situation, name the important vocabulary, and practise one step at a time.

Learning routine:

1. Look at a real situation in Rwanda.
2. Name the exact idea or skill.
3. Explain it in simple words.
4. Work through one model example.
5. Try a similar task independently.
6. Correct your answer using the success criteria.

Key words:

- National and international judicial systems and instruments
- National
- international
- judicial
- systems
- instruments
- idea
- skill

National and international judicial systems and instruments: Worked Example

Evidence model for National and international judicial systems and instruments: Teach a real example clearly.

1. Name the place, group, object, source, skill, or issue.
2. Give two facts or observations from the lesson.
3. Explain why the example matters in Rwanda.
4. Add one responsible action, improvement, or reflection.
5. Check that your response uses the exact vocabulary from History.

National and international judicial systems and instruments: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words and study moves before you practise National and international judicial systems and instruments. Good vocabulary helps you read the question, choose the right method, and explain your answer clearly.

Key words:

- National and international judicial systems and instruments
- National
- international
- judicial
- systems
- instruments
- idea
- skill

Study skill:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Say each word in your own words.
3. Give one example from Rwanda.
4. Use each word in a correct sentence, calculation step, diagram label, or oral answer.
5. Ask a partner to check whether your example matches the topic.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about National and international judicial systems and instruments without a clear example, method, or evidence.

National and international judicial systems and instruments: Guided Activity

Work with a partner or small group.

1. Read the inquiry question again.
2. Choose one real situation linked to a Rwanda map, community, citizenship, culture, environment, or heritage example for National and international judicial systems and instruments.
3. Decide what evidence, method, vocabulary, tool, text, map, diagram, movement, or example is needed.
4. Complete the task together and explain each step aloud.
5. Compare your answer with another group.
6. Improve one part after feedback.

Group role check: one learner reads the task, one records ideas, one checks vocabulary or working, and one reports the answer.

National and international judicial systems and instruments: Practice And Correction

Practice for National and international judicial systems and instruments:

1. Use an example from your community or country to explain: the Analyze the national, international judicial systems and instruments, and how justice has been delayed and denied in the Rwandan society.

Correction check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Reflection: What was clear? What needs more practice? What question will you ask your teacher or study partner?

Home link: Ask someone at home for one safe example related to national and international judicial systems and instruments and write two useful sentences about it.

National and international judicial systems and instruments: Challenge And Remediation

Use this page after practice.

If you need support:

1. Re-read the success criteria.
2. Copy the worked example steps as headings.
3. Replace the model details with details from National and international judicial systems and instruments.
4. Ask one clear question about the step that is confusing.

If you are ready for a challenge:

1. Create a new task from school, home, community, environment, technology, sport, art, market, or fieldwork.
2. Solve or answer it using correct vocabulary.
3. Explain why your answer is reasonable.
4. Write one extension question for a classmate.

Check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

National and international judicial systems and instruments: Outcome Check

Show that you can the Analyze the national, international judicial systems and instruments, and how justice has been delayed and denied in the Rwandan society.

Before answering, reread the topic title and choose the exact vocabulary, method, evidence, tool, diagram, or example that fits this outcome.

1. State the main idea in one clear sentence.
2. Give one example, method, source, observation, or piece of evidence from this topic.
3. Complete a short task that applies the idea.
4. Check your answer against the success criteria.
5. Write one correction or next step.

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Dignity and self-reliance: Lesson Opener

Learning focus: Dignity and self-reliance

Country link: a Rwanda map, community, citizenship, culture, environment, or heritage example for Dignity and self-reliance.

By the end of this topic, you should be able to:

- the identify the lessons that can be learnt from the successful self -reliance policies of the African leaders

Inquiry questions:

- How can dignity and self-reliance help you solve a real problem in History?

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Dignity and self-reliance: Learn

Dignity and self-reliance becomes easier when you connect the idea to a real situation, name the important vocabulary, and practise one step at a time.

Learning routine:

1. Look at a real situation in Rwanda.
2. Name the exact idea or skill.
3. Explain it in simple words.
4. Work through one model example.
5. Try a similar task independently.
6. Correct your answer using the success criteria.

Key words:

- Dignity and self-reliance
- Dignity
- self-reliance
- idea
- skill
- example
- practice
- correction

Dignity and self-reliance: Worked Example

Evidence model for Dignity and self-reliance: Teach a real example clearly.

1. Name the place, group, object, source, skill, or issue.
2. Give two facts or observations from the lesson.
3. Explain why the example matters in Rwanda.
4. Add one responsible action, improvement, or reflection.
5. Check that your response uses the exact vocabulary from History.

Dignity and self-reliance: Vocabulary And Study Skill

Use these words and study moves before you practise Dignity and self-reliance. Good vocabulary helps you read the question, choose the right method, and explain your answer clearly.

Key words:

- Dignity and self-reliance
- Dignity
- self-reliance
- idea
- skill
- example
- practice
- correction

Study skill:

1. Choose three key words.
2. Say each word in your own words.
3. Give one example from Rwanda.
4. Use each word in a correct sentence, calculation step, diagram label, or oral answer.
5. Ask a partner to check whether your example matches the topic.

Common mistake to avoid: giving a general answer about Dignity and self-reliance without a clear example, method, or evidence.

Dignity and self-reliance: Guided Activity

Work with a partner or small group.

1. Read the inquiry question again.
2. Choose one real situation linked to a Rwanda map, community, citizenship, culture, environment, or heritage example for Dignity and self-reliance.
3. Decide what evidence, method, vocabulary, tool, text, map, diagram, movement, or example is needed.
4. Complete the task together and explain each step aloud.
5. Compare your answer with another group.
6. Improve one part after feedback.

Group role check: one learner reads the task, one records ideas, one checks vocabulary or working, and one reports the answer.

Dignity and self-reliance: Practice And Correction

Practice for Dignity and self-reliance:

1. Use an example from your community or country to explain: the identify the lessons that can be learnt from the successful self -reliance policies of the African leaders.

Correction check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Reflection: What was clear? What needs more practice? What question will you ask your teacher or study partner?

Home link: Ask someone at home for one safe example related to dignity and self-reliance and write two useful sentences about it.

Dignity and self-reliance: Challenge And Remediation

Use this page after practice.

If you need support:

1. Re-read the success criteria.
2. Copy the worked example steps as headings.
3. Replace the model details with details from Dignity and self-reliance.
4. Ask one clear question about the step that is confusing.

If you are ready for a challenge:

1. Create a new task from school, home, community, environment, technology, sport, art, market, or fieldwork.
2. Solve or answer it using correct vocabulary.
3. Explain why your answer is reasonable.
4. Write one extension question for a classmate.

Check:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Dignity and self-reliance: Outcome Check

Show that you can the identify the lessons that can be learnt from the successful self -reliance policies of the African leaders.

Before answering, reread the topic title and choose the exact vocabulary, method, evidence, tool, diagram, or example that fits this outcome.

1. State the main idea in one clear sentence.
2. Give one example, method, source, observation, or piece of evidence from this topic.
3. Complete a short task that applies the idea.
4. Check your answer against the success criteria.
5. Write one correction or next step.

Success criteria:

- answer uses a real example
- reasoning is clear
- work is checked

Origin of Islam and its impact in West Africa No. of peri - ods: Review Clinic 1

Use this review clinic to strengthen History without copying earlier answers.

1. Choose one idea from Origin of Islam and its impact in West Africa No. of peri - ods that was difficult.
2. Explain the idea in your own words.
3. Make one new example from Rwanda.
4. Create one question that checks knowledge.
5. Create one question that checks skill or application.
6. Answer both questions and correct your work.

Challenge: Turn the idea into a drawing, table, map, dialogue, model, demonstration, or worked solution.

Major European events from 1836 to: Review Clinic 2

Use this review clinic to strengthen History without copying earlier answers.

1. Choose one idea from Major European events from 1836 to that was difficult.
2. Explain the idea in your own words.
3. Make one new example from Rwanda.
4. Create one question that checks knowledge.
5. Create one question that checks skill or application.
6. Answer both questions and correct your work.

Challenge: Turn the idea into a drawing, table, map, dialogue, model, demonstration, or worked solution.

European domination and the exploitation of Africa in the 19th Century: Review Clinic 3

Use this review clinic to strengthen History without copying earlier answers.

1. Choose one idea from European domination and the exploitation of Africa in the 19th Century that was difficult.
2. Explain the idea in your own words.
3. Make one new example from Rwanda.
4. Create one question that checks knowledge.
5. Create one question that checks skill or application.
6. Answer both questions and correct your work.

Challenge: Turn the idea into a drawing, table, map, dialogue, model, demonstration, or worked solution.

Impact of colonial rule on African societies: Review Clinic 4

Use this review clinic to strengthen History without copying earlier answers.

1. Choose one idea from Impact of colonial rule on African societies that was difficult.
2. Explain the idea in your own words.
3. Make one new example from Rwanda.
4. Create one question that checks knowledge.
5. Create one question that checks skill or application.
6. Answer both questions and correct your work.

Challenge: Turn the idea into a drawing, table, map, dialogue, model, demonstration, or worked solution.

Glossary

Use this glossary to revise important words in History.

- Origin of Islam and its impact in West Africa No. of peri - ods: Explain this term using an example from the book, your school, or your community.
- Major European events from 1836 to: Explain this term using an example from the book, your school, or your community.
- European domination and the exploitation of Africa in the 19th Century: Explain this term using an example from the book, your school, or your community.
- Impact of colonial rule on African societies: Explain this term using an example from the book, your school, or your community.
- The First and Second Republics of Rwanda: Explain this term using an example from the book, your school, or your community.
- Genocide ideology and denial in Rwanda and abroad: Explain this term using an example from the book, your school, or your community.
- National duties and obligations: Explain this term using an example from the book, your school, or your community.
- National and international judicial systems and instruments: Explain this term using an example from the book, your school, or your community.
- Dignity and self-reliance: Explain this term using an example from the book, your school, or your community.

Add five more words from your lessons and write your own meanings.

Answer And Teacher Notes

A strong History answer responds to the exact task, uses correct vocabulary, gives a clear example or evidence, and shows correction after feedback. For practical work, name materials, safety, process, quality checks, peer feedback, and one improvement made after review.

Final Project

Create a final project for History that shows what you can now do independently.

Your project must include:

1. A clear title.
2. A real-life problem, question, text, performance, investigation, design, or worked task.
3. Evidence from at least three lessons in this book.
4. A drawing, table, map, chart, model, dialogue, paragraph, performance plan, practical product, or worked solution.
5. A correction note showing one improvement after feedback.
6. A short reflection explaining what you learned, what was difficult, and what you will practise next.

Presentation check: keep the work neat, label important parts, use correct vocabulary, and be ready to explain your choices to a classmate or teacher.