KITABU QUEST Form III History

Tanzania TIE-BASIC learner book

Mascot: lion

This KITABU QUEST book turns the curriculum into short lessons, worked examples, guided activities, practice, review, and home links for Tanzania learners.

How To Use This Book

This book helps Form III learners study History one teachable topic at a time.

1. Start with the inquiry question and say what you already know.
2. Read the Learn section slowly and mark new words.
3. Try the worked example before reading the full solution.
4. Complete the activity and practice tasks.
5. Correct your answer using the success criteria.
6. Ask for support when your answer is still unclear.

Subject method: Use timelines, sources, evidence, and careful explanation of cause, change, and consequence.

Learning Skills In This Book

Each topic builds knowledge, skill, values, communication, collaboration, critical thinking, creativity, digital awareness, and self-confidence.

Study actively: speak answers aloud, draw when useful, show your working, cite evidence, use local examples, and correct mistakes after feedback.

A strong answer is specific. It names the idea, gives evidence or method, applies it to the task, and checks whether it answers the question.

Table Of Contents

Use this table to move through the book one topic at a time. Each topic has a lesson opener, clear teaching, a model or example, guided work, practice, and checks for understanding.

1. Nationalism And Liberation Movements
2. Independence And Nation Building
3. Post-Colonial Social And Economic Change
4. Democracy Governance And Human Rights
5. Regional Cooperation In East Africa
6. World Wars And Global Change
7. Interpreting Historical Arguments
8. Form III History Project

As you finish each topic, return to the success criteria and correct one answer before moving on.

Answer And Teacher Notes

A strong History answer responds to the exact task, uses correct vocabulary, gives a clear example or evidence, and shows correction after feedback. For practical work, name materials, safety, process, quality checks, peer feedback, and one improvement made after review.

Final Project

Create a final project for History that shows what you can now do independently.

Your project must include:

1. A clear title.
2. A real-life problem, question, text, performance, investigation, design, or worked task.
3. Evidence from at least three lessons in this book.
4. A drawing, table, map, chart, model, dialogue, paragraph, performance plan, practical product, or worked solution.
5. A correction note showing one improvement after feedback.
6. A short reflection explaining what you learned, what was difficult, and what you will practise next.

Presentation check: keep the work neat, label important parts, use correct vocabulary, and be ready to explain your choices to a classmate or teacher.
